The Spanish Tercios
1536–1704

Ignacio & Iván Notario López
Illustrated by Gerry & Sam Embleton
Series editor Martin Windrow
IGNACIO JOSÉ NOTARIO LÓPEZ and IVÁN NOTARIO LÓPEZ were born in Madrid, in 1969 and 1973, and both are soldiers in the Spanish Army, in infantry and cavalry respectively. They have served several tours of duty in the Balkans (Bosnia and Kosovo) and Afghanistan, with a number of assignments in different armoured and mechanized regiments. Their historical interests are particularly focused on the military history of Spain.

GERRY EMBLETON has been a leading illustrator and researcher of historical costume since the 1970s, and has illustrated and written Osprey titles on a wide range of subjects over more than 20 years. He is an internationally respected authority on 15th and 18th century costumes in particular. He lives in Switzerland, where since 1988 he has also become well known for designing and creating life-size historical figures for museums. His son SAM EMBLETON is also an illustrator, and this is their tenth joint project for Osprey.
