Marxism in Dark Times

Select Essays for the New Century

Sobhanlal Datta Gupta
CONTENTS

Preface ix
Acknowledgments xi
A Note on Translations xiii
List of Abbreviations xv

Introduction 1

Part I  Marxism: Beyond Dogma, an Alternative Quest
1. The Communist Manifesto after 150 Years: Some Observations 9
2. Rosa Luxemburg's Vision of Socialism: Some Reflections 17
3. Antonio Gramsci and the Heritage of Marxism 27
5. Comintern: Exploring the New Historiography 63
7. Rosa Luxemburg's Letters as Texts of a New Vision of Revolutionary Democracy and Socialism 105
8. Understanding Socialism as Hegemony: Rosa Luxemburg and Nikolai Bukharin 117
9. Frankfurt School, Moscow and David Ryazanov: New Perspectives 125
10. Perestroika and Socialism: Promises and Problems 131
Part II  Marxism: Challenges and Possibilities in the New Century

11. Marxism in Dark Times: Rediscovering a Revolutionary Legacy 155
12. Re-visioning Socialism in a Plural Age 161
13. Marxism, Modernity and History: Towards an Alternative Understanding 169
14. Marxism and Postmodernism: Confrontation or Dialogue? 179
15. Intellectuals, Knowledge and the Masses: A Question of Pedagogy 191