Orientalism and Identity in Latin America

Fashioning Self and Other from the (Post)Colonial Margin

Edited by
ERIK CAMAYD-FREIXAS

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA PRESS - TUCSON
Contents

Introduction: The Orientalist Controversy and the Origins of Amerindian Culture
ERIK CAMAYD-FREIXAS 1

1. The Death of the Critique of Eurocentrism: Latinamericanism as a Global Praxis/Poiesis
BRETT LEVINSON 19

2. The Mentality of the Reconquest and the Early Conquistadors
HERNÁN G. H. TABOADA 35

3. Orientalism Criollo Style: Sarmiento's “Orient” and the Formation of an Argentine Identity
CHRISTINA CIVANTOS 44

4. Orientalism and Mexican Nationalism: Catarina de San Juan as the China Poblana's Asian Mother
BLAKE SEANA LOCKLIN 62

5. Journeys and Trials of the Fu Family: Transpacific Reverberations of the Anti-Chinese Movement in Mexico
JULIA MARÍA SCHIAVONE CAMACHO 79

6. Narrating Orientalisms in Spanish American Modernism
IVAN A. SCHULMAN 95

7. Enrique Gómez Carrillo's Japan and Latin American (Peripheral) Orientalism
ZOILA CLARK 108

8. The Tao of Mexican Poetry: Tablada, Villaurrutia, Paz
ERIK CAMAYD-FREIXAS 119
9. The Dragon’s Footprints along Cuban Narrative
   ROGELIO RODRÍGUEZ CORONEL  145

10. Renace el sueño: Remaking Havana’s Barrio Chino
    KATHLEEN LÓPEZ  160

11. Of Chinese Dragons and Canaries on the Isthmus of Panama
    MARGARITA VÁSQUEZ  174

12. Siu Kam Wen and the Subjectification of Chinese Peruvians in “El tramo final”
    DEBRA LEE-DISTEFANO  188

13. Zen in Brazil: Cannibalizing Orientalist Flows
    CRISTINA ROCHA  200

14. Writing and Memory: Images of the Japanese Diaspora
    in Brazil
    KAREN TEI YAMASHITA  217

Selected Bibliography  231
About the Contributors  235
Index  239