Latin American State Building in Comparative Perspective

Social Foundations of Institutional Order

MARCUS J. KURTZ
Ohio State University

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

Acknowledgments

1. The Difficulties of Studying State Building .......................... page ix
2. The Social Foundations of State Building in the Contemporary Era .......................... 1
3. State Formation in Chile and Peru: Institution Building and Atrophy in Unlikely Settings .......................... 18
5. Divergence Reinforced: The Timing of Political Inclusion and State Strength in Chile and Peru .......................... 95
6. The Social Question and the State: Mass Mobilization, Suffrage, and Institutional Development in Argentina and Uruguay .......................... 131

References

References .................................................. 251

Index

Index .................................................. 271