Public Administration in Post-Communist Countries

Former Soviet Union, Central and Eastern Europe, and Mongolia

Edited by
Saltanat Liebert
Stephen E. Condrey
Dmitry Goncharov
Contents

| Acknowledgments | vii |
| Contributors    | ix |

1. Introduction: Public Administration in Central and Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet States—Common Legacy and Challenges of the Post-Communist Era ................................. 1
   SALTANAT LIEBERT, STEPHEN E. CONDREY, AND DMITRY GONCHAROV

2. Ukrainian Public Management: Top-Down or Bottom-Up Reform? ...................... 7
   STEPHEN E. CONDREY, SVITLANA SLAVA-PRODAN, R. PAUL BATTAGLIO, AND MYKOLA PALINCHAK

3. Public Administration in Russia .................................................................... 23
   DMITRY GONCHAROV AND ANTON SHIRIKOV

4. Public Sector Reforms in Kazakhstan .......................................................... 43
   AIGERIM R. IBRAYEVA AND TAMARA NEZHINA

5. Public Administration in Kyrgyzstan ............................................................ 69
   SALTANAT LIEBERT AND MEDET TIULEGENOV

6. Public Administration in Georgia .................................................................. 103
   NINO DOLIDZE, ILIA JOBAYA, ELIZABETH SOPROMADZE, NINO LOLADZE, TEA LOLADZE, LANA OVSIAJNIKOVA, ZHANA ANTIA, GEORGE MZHAVANADZE, AND TEA SONISHVILI

7. Post-Communist Public Administration in Lithuania ..................................... 135
   SAULIUS PIVORAS

   GEORG SOOTLA AND SULEV LÄÄNE

9. Republic of Moldova: Toward a European Administration ............................ 191
   LUCICA MATEI

10. Public Administration in Romania: Historical Milestones and Daily Realities ..... 217
    ANI MATEI
Contents

11 Public Administration in Bulgaria................................................................. 251
   MARGARITA SHIVERGUEVA

12 Hungarian Public Administration: From Transition to Consolidation ............ 277
   ISTVÁN VÁNYOLÓS AND GYÖRGY HAJNAL

13 Public Administration in Poland.................................................................. 293
   JACEK CZAPUTOWICZ AND MARCIN SAKOWICZ

14 Public Administration in Mongolia............................................................... 319
   TSEDEV DAMIRAN AND RICHARD PRATT

15 Conclusion: Public Administration in Former Soviet States—Two Decades of Different Ways.......................................................... 339
   SALTANAT LIEBERT, STEPHEN E. CONDREY, AND DMITRY GONCHAROV

Index .................................................................................................................. 355