POLITICAL GRAFFITI
ON THE WEST BANK WALL
IN ISRAEL / PALESTINE

Steven T. Olberg

With a Foreword by David Smith

The Edwin Mellen Press
Lewiston•Queenston•Lampeter
Table of Contents

Abstract .................................................................................................................. i Commendatory Foreword-Dr. David Smith ........................................................ iii
Preface-Dr. Liza Burr ............................................................................................. v

Chapter 1-Introduction ..................................................................................... 1
    The Wall ............................................................................................................ 1
    Graffiti as a Nonviolent Response to the Wall ...... 6
    Purpose of the Study ....................................................................................... 8
    Thesis: Expected Dichotomy of Thought Created by Divisive Structure .................................................................................... 12

Chapter 2- Literature Review ....................................................................... 15
    Introduction-Street Art and Political Graffiti ........15
    Street Art ....................................................................................................... 16
    Visual and Social Transformations: Fluid Messages and Ambiguous Aesthetics in Street Art ..........19
    Giving Voice to the Silenced Through Active
    Resistance ....................................................................................................... 23
    Anonymous Product and Invisible Process in Grassroots Communication ......................................................... 27
    National Identity and Sovereignty Politics ..........28
    Conclusion: Historical Context Applied to the Political Graffiti on the West Bank Wall .......... 30

Chapter 3- Methodology ......................................................... 33
Photographic Archiving of Graffiti .................. 33
Decoding of Graffiti Photographs ................. 36
Bethlehem and Hebrew Universities
Descriptions ................................................................. 39
Recruitment of Student Participants From
Bethlehem and Hebrew Universities ............... 41
Interview Process .......................................................... 45

Chapter 4-Political Graffiti .................................................. 51
Introduction and Initial Impressions .......... 51
Graphic and Stylistic Tools of Communication .... 53 Monster Theme with Restrictions of Movement and the Pictures of the Wall ........................................... 59
Monster Related to the Right of Return .......... 61
Monster: The West Bank Wall Itself as Graffiti ... 64
Monster as an Historical Reference .............. 69
Methods of Social Transformation Seen in Graphic and Stylistic Tools of Communication ............ 70
International Graffiti Movement and Identities
Using English, Arabic, Hebrew, Spanish, French, and German .............................................................. 72
International Graffiti Movement and Identities
Seen in Arabic Examples ........................................ 77
International Graffiti Movement and Identities
Seen In the International Support and Solidarity .. 79
International Graffiti Movement and Identities
Seen with American Support or Condemnation .... 83
International Graffiti Movement and Identities
Seen with Political Heroes and Villains .............. 85
Natural Resource as seen with Land, Olive Trees,
Water, "Land as People" ........................................ 88
Natural Resources Seen with Olive Trees and Water .......................................................................... 90
Equality Seen in Graphic Renderings of Peace,
Love, Nonviolence, and Freedom ....................... 91
Equality in Messages of Peace and Love .............. 94
Equality in the Graphic Renderings of Justice and Freedom ............................................................ 96
Resistance and Nonviolence ............................... 99
Change Concept with Violence and Revolution ...101
Change and Nonviolence Concepts ..................... 103
Gender and Religion .............................................. 104
Concluding Synthesis and Lessons Learned
From Graffiti Messages .........................................105
Chapter 5- Student Interviews .................................111
Introduction ...................................................... 111
Overall Impressions ............................................ 111
The Wall .......................................................... 118
Graffiti Techniques and Symbolism ...................... 132
Definitions, Boundaries, and Identities ................. 150
Solidarity and Identities .................................... 155
National Identities ............................................. 162 Ownership and Boundaries, Imperialism and the Right of Return ........................................... 164
Ownership and Boundaries, Claims of Ethnic Cleansing, Apartheid Comparisons, and Accusations of Fascism ..................................... 180
Hope and Peace ............................................... 189
Fear of the Present and Hope for the Future,
and Proposed Solutions for Peace ...................... 192
Opinions Regarding World Leaders ..................... 196
Religion and Political Philosophies as Variables
for Peace ....................................................... 199
Inhumane Suffering and Inappropriate Civilian
Targeting ....................................................... 202
Ownership, and Boundaries, and Inhumanity .... 205
Fear of the Present, Hope for the Future, and Fear of Terrorism ........................................... 209