Joy and International Relations
A new methodology

Elina Penttinen
Contents

Acknowledgments viii

1 Introduction: journey from feminist international relations problem-making towards a life-enhancing approach 1

2 Heartfelt positivity: a nondualist methodology for international relations 18

3 War is an unexamined belief: mindfulness as a methodology for the practice of IR 35

4 The stories we live by: Finnish female police officers in security roles 47

5 Healing and wholeness in the midst of extreme violence and war 62

6 Women are always victims of war, is it true? 78

7 Posthumanist experience of war: readings of the films Stormheart and The Men Who Stare at Goats 93

8 Conclusions: dreaming of loving-kindness and shared joy in the field of international relations 106

Notes 117

References 125

Index 135