Natural Resource Extraction and Indigenous Livelihoods
Development Challenges in an Era of Globalization

Edited by
EMMA GILBERTHORPE
University of East Anglia, UK

GAVIN HILSON
University of Surrey, UK

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Figures, Tables and Box vii
List of Contributors ix

Introduction 1
   Emma Gilberthorpe and Gavin Hilson

1 Indigenous Employment, Training and Retention: Successes and Challenges at Red Dog Mine 11
   Sharman Haley and David Fisher

2 Mining in Aboriginal Australia: Economic Impacts, Sustainable Livelihoods and Cultural Difference at Century Mine, Northwest Queensland 37
   David Martin, David Trigger and Joni Parmenter

3 Reciprocity in the Canadian Dene Diamond Mining Economy 57
   Ginger Gibson MacDonald, John B. Zoe and Terre Satterfield

4 The Money Rain Phenomenon: Papua New Guinea Oil and the Resource Curse 75
   Emma Gilberthorpe

5 Fisheries in Coastal India: Extraction, Livelihoods and a Way of Life 93
   J. Allister McGregor, Venkatesh Salagrama and Aditya V. Bahadur

6 Negotiable Differences? Conflicts over Mining and Development in South East Ecuador 109
   Ximena S. Warnaars and Anthony Bebbington

7 Corporate Social Responsibility in Oil-Rich Sub-Saharan Africa: Conceptualizing the Challenges 129
   Abigail Hilson

8 Land, Oil and Indigenous People in the Russian North: A Case Study of the Oil Pipeline and Evenki in Aldan 147
   Natalia Yakovleva
9 Timber Extraction in Solomon Islands: Too Much, Too Fast; Too Little, Too Late
Sue Farran

10 What Local People Want with Forests: Ideologies and Attitudes in Papua New Guinea
Paul Sillitoe and Colin Filer

11 Conservation, Extraction and Corruption: Is Sustainable Forest Management Possible in Romania?
Laura Bouriaud and Mariella Marzano

12 Preserving Forests and Protecting Livelihoods: The Challenge of REDD Governance
Mark Hirons

13 Fair Trade Mineral Programs in Sub-Saharan Africa: Some Critical Reflections
Gavin Hilson and Roy Maconachie

Afterword
Andrew Barry

Index