The Charismatic Leadership Phenomenon in Radical and Militant Islamism

HARORO J. D. GRAM
Australian National University (ANU), Australia

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Figures and Table  ix

Introduction  1

PART I ESTABLISHING THEORY

1. Literature Review: Charismatic Leadership Theory  11
2. A Theoretical Framework of Charismatic Leadership  27
4. The Radicalisation Process and the Role of the Charismatic Leader: Merging Radicalisation and Charismatic Leadership Theory  63

PART II ESTABLISHING CONTEXT

5. Islam as Centre and the Charismatic Leaders of Islamist Radicalism and Militancy: Exploring the Islamic ‘Toolkit’  77
6. The Transformative Charisma Phenomenon in Islamist Radicalism and Militancy: A Framework of Macro-level Trends and Characteristics  95

PART III CASE STUDIES

8. The Post-Colonial Period (1945-1970): From the Chasm between Hope and Reality: Sayyid Qutb  121
The Charismatic Leadership Phenomenon in Radical and Militant Islamism

Conclusion 225

References 231

Index 251