Making Multilevel Public Management Work

Stories of Success and Failure from Europe and North America

Edited by Denita Cepiku
David K. Jesuit • Ian Roberge
Contents

Introduction ............................................................................................................. vii
Contributors .......................................................................................................... xvii

SECTION I  INSTITUTIONAL AND LEGAL CONSTRAINTS

1  A Network Approach to Asymmetric Federalism: The Italian Case Study .............................................................................................................. 3
   DENITA CEPIKU

2  Emerging Issues in Italian Fiscal Federalism: The Case of Municipalities ........................................................................................................ 27
   RICCARDO MUSSARI AND FILIPPO GIORDANO

3  Integrating User Voices into the European Financial Services Policy Process .................................................................................................. 51
   HEATHER MCKEEN-EDWARDS

4  Structuring the Game and Surmounting Obstacles: Case Studies from Europe in Multilevel Public Management ........................................... 67
   ELISA SCOTTI

5  Policy Governance in Complex Multilevel Systems: Innovation Management in Canada ...................................................................................... 85
   CHARLES CONTEH

SECTION II  ACTORS IN MULTILEVEL PUBLIC MANAGEMENT

6  Politics over Policy: Multilevel Public Management of the Financial Services Sector in Canada .............................................................. 103
   IAN ROBERGE
7 Climate Change Adaptation and Multilevel Governance: Challenges to Policy Capacity in Canadian Finance ....................... 119
    RUSSELL ALAN WILLIAMS

8 Government Fragmentation and Emergency Planning: Findings from the 2009 Red River Flood and Its Aftermath ...................... 141
    NICHOLAS BAUROTH

9 The Importance of Multilevel Governance Participation in the “Great Lakes Areas of Concern” ........................................... 159
    THOMAS J. GREITENS, J. CHERIE STRACHAN, AND CRAIG S. WELTON

SECTION III CONCLUSION: CONTESTING MULTILEVEL PUBLIC MANAGEMENT

10 Recasting and Reframing a Polymorphous Concept: A Sober Second Look at Multilevel Governance........................................... 185
    CHRISTIAN ROUILLARD AND GENEVIÈVE NADEAU

Index .................................................................................................................................................. 203