National Security for a New Era
Fifth Edition

DONALD M. SNOW
Professor Emeritus, University of Alabama
CONTENTS

Preface  x

PART I  The Conceptual Nexus

CHAPTER 1  National Security for a New and Changing Era  2

Sources of Change  6

The International Dimension  8
The Domestic Dimension  13
Amplification 1.1  Why Entitlement and Defense Cuts?  15
The Intermestic Intersection  19

Challenge!  Is a Reduced Commitment to National Security Acceptable?  20

Conclusions: The Way Forward  21  •  Study/Discussion Questions  22
•  Selected Bibliography  22

CHAPTER 2  The Concepts and Logic of National Security  23

Thinking about Security  25

Military and Nonmilitary Elements of Security  25
Levels of Security  26

Risk and Risk Management  28

Amplification 2.1  What Should the United States Do About North Korea?  29

Thinking About Interests  31

Levels of Interest  31

Amplification 2.2  Vital and Less-Than-Vital Interests and Afghanistan  34

Security and Interests in the Contemporary Environment  34

Power and the Instruments of Power  35

Power  36
Instruments of Power  36
Power and Security  37

The Realist Paradigm  38

Basic Concepts and Relationships  39
Paradigm Implications  43
Critiques and Anomalies of the Realist Paradigm  44
Challenge!  The Realist Paradigm and Contemporary American Politics  45

iii
PART II The Historical Context

CHAPTER 3 Influences from the Past: The American Historical Experience 52

Conditioning Factors in the American Tradition 53
  American Ahistoricism 53

Accident of Geography 55
  Amplification 3.1 Dealing with Dependence on Persian Gulf Oil 56

The Anglo-Saxon Heritage 57

Evolution of the American Experience 58

The Formative Period, 1789–1945 59
  Antimilitary Bias 60
  The Citizen-Soldier 61
  The Myth of Invincibility 62
  Mobilization and Demobilization 63
  Amplification 3.2 Readiness and Pearl Harbor 63
  Total War Preference 64

The Cold War, 1945–1989 65
  The Role of the Media 68
  The Impact of Democratic Institutions 69
  Professionalism in the Military 70
  Challenge! Military Future Force Challenges in a Constrained World 71

Conclusion: The Contemporary Period, 1989 to Present 72
  Study/Discussion Questions 73
  Selected Bibliography 73

CHAPTER 4 The Post-1945 Challenge: The Nature and End of the Cold War 75

The Cold War System 77
  Characteristics 79
  Amplification 4.1 Better Red than Dead? Better Dead than Red? 80
  Sources of Change 82

Forms of Military Competition 83
  Conventional Forces 85
  Nuclear-Forces 86
  Amplification 4.2 The Capitalist Bomb 88
Institutional Responses to National Security Challenges: War Powers and Homeland Security 143
- The Problem of War Powers 143
- The Context of the WPR of October 1973 144
- Content of the WPR 145
- Status of the WPR 146
- Homeland Security 146
- Challenge! The United States in Libya 147
- Background and Evolution of the Problem 147
- The Homeland Security Response to September 11 149
- Ongoing Problems and Controversies 152

Conclusion: The Contemporary Environment 154

Study/Discussion Questions 155

Selected Bibliography 155

CHAPTER 7 Domestic Battlegrounds and National Security 157

The Political Battleground 159
- The Predictable Failure of the Super Committee 161
- The National Security Entrapment 163

National Security and Domestic Politics 165
- Defense Budgeting 166
- The Erosion of National Security Sanctity 170
- Parameters of the Budget Deficit Debate 172
- Amplification 7.1 Estimating Budget Deficits and Trends 172

The Impact on National Security 177
- Likely Areas of Reductions 177
- Amplification 7.2 The Washington Monument Ploy 178
- National Security Benefits and Costs 179
- Challenge! Thinking About Loss Allocation 180

Conclusions: An Ongoing Debate 181 • Study/Discussion Questions 182

Selected Bibliography 183

CHAPTER 8 The Phenomenon and Impact of Globalization 184

The Bretton Woods System, 1945–1971 186
- The Bretton Woods Institutions 187
- Amplification 8.1 The ITO and the Antifree Traders 189
- The Breakdown of Bretton Woods 190

The Transitional Period, 1971–1990 192
- American Decline 192
- American Revival 193
The Globalizing Economy, 1990–Present 194

Characteristics and Values 195

Objections to Globalization 197

Amplification 8.2 The Rejectionists 200

New Additions to the National Security Agenda 200

Conclusion: Globalization and Other Factors in American Security 207

Challenge! Rare Earth Elements and National Security 208

Study/Discussion Questions 209 • Selected Bibliography 209

CHAPTER 9 "Legacy" Military Problems 211

Nuclear Forces and Deterrence 212

Seminal Events of the Nuclear Age 213

Theories of Deterrence 216

Nuclear Residues 218

Amplification 9.1 Iranian Proliferation and Israel 223

Traditional Forces and the Future 225

The Heavy Forces (Conventional) Model 226

The Light Forces (Unconventional) Model 227

Light Forces, Heavy Forces, or Both? 229

Amplification 9.2 Affording Heavy Forces: Relevance and Cost Overruns 229

Traditional Residues 230

Military Manpower 230

Challenge! Military Service After Iraq and Afghanistan 232

Military Reform 232

Conclusion: The Continuing Relevance of Traditional Forces 234 • Study/Discussion Questions 236 • Selected Bibliography 236

PART IV The Contemporary Environment and Challenges

CHAPTER 10 Residues of 9/11: Terrorism, Iraq, and Afghanistan 239

The Direct Terrorism Response 242

Why Terror? 243

Amplification 10.1 Terrorism as Crime or War 244

Dealing with Terror 250

The War in Afghanistan 258
Contents

Justification of the War 259
Validity of the Objective 262
Lessons of Afghanistan 265
Amplification 10.2  Afghanistan Options 267

The Iraq War 268
Justifications of the War 269
Validity of the Objective 271
Lessons of Iraq 273
Challenge! What if Iraq “Goes South”? 274
Conclusions: Conditioning the Future 276 • Study/Discussion Questions 277 • Selected Bibliography 277

CHAPTER 11 International Change: Asymmetrical Warfare 279

The Context of Asymmetrical Warfare 282
Amplification 11.1  Sun Tzu on Asymmetrical Warfare 283
The End of the Cold War 284
The United States as Hyperpower 286
September 11 and the Shift in Violent Activity 287

The Dynamics of Asymmetrical Warfare 289
Defining Symmetrical and Asymmetrical Warfare 289
The Lure of Asymmetrical Warfare 292
Asymmetrical Models: Mobile-Guerrilla Warfare 294

Asymmetrical Futures? 301
The Political Legacy: Be Careful Where You Intervene 303
The Military Legacy: Preparing for Asymmetrical Foes 305
Challenge! The Asymmetrical Warfare Element in Planning 307

Conclusions: Asymmetry and the Future 308 • Study/Discussion Questions 309 • Selected Bibliography 309

CHAPTER 12 The Menu of Activism: Peacekeeping, State Building, and Development 311

Peacekeeping 316
The Dynamics of Peacekeeping 318
Amplification 12.1  The Talk–Shoot Dilemma in PE 324
Peacekeeping and the Future 326

Development and State Building 327
The Rationale and Evolution of Development 329
Impediments to Development 332