Minority Populations in Canadian Second Language Education

Edited by
Katy Arnett and Callie Mady
Contents

Contributors

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Contributors</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Introduction: Broadening the Lens of Second Language Education in Canada: Minority Populations in Canadian Second Language Education</td>
<td>xi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Katy Arnett and Callie Mady</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Part 1: French as an Additional Language: Immigrants’ Learning of French in English-dominant Canada

1. Adding Languages, Adding Benefits: Immigrant Students’ Attitudes Toward and Performance in FSOL Programs in Canada by Callie Mady - 3

2. Learning French in British Columbia: English as Additional Language Learner and Parent Perspectives by Wendy Carr - 22

3. French is Hard: An English Language Learner’s Experience in Core French by Jordana F. Carbati - 38

Part 2: Heritage Language and Culture Maintenance for Immigrants and Their Families

4. Fostering Heritage Languages and Diasporic Identities: The Role of Grassroots Initiatives in Alberta and British Columbia by Martin Guardado and Ava Becker - 55

5. Self, Identity and Motivation in the Development and Maintenance of German as a Heritage Language by Kimberly A. Noels - 71
Contents

6 Learning Chinese as a Heritage Language 87
Patricia A. Duff and Duanduan Li

Part 3: Individuals with Disabilities and Second Language Study

7 The Genesis and Perpetuation of Exemptions and Transfers from French Second Language Programs for Students with Diverse Learning Needs: A Preliminary Examination and Their Link to Inclusion 103
Katy Arnett

8 Reading Without Borders: At-Risk Students Transitioning from L1 to L2 in French Immersion 118
Renée Bourgoin and Joseph Dicks

9 The Writing Processes of a Grade 7 French Immersion Student with Asperger Syndrome 135
Josée Le Bouthillier

Part 4: The Revival, Maintenance and Growth of Aboriginal Languages in Canada

Donna-Lee Smith, Josephine Peck and Donald Taylor

Carmen Gillies and Marie Battiste

12 How Have Aboriginal North Americans Responded to Writing Systems in Their Own Languages? 184
Barbara Burnaby

Conclusion: Additional Conceptions of Second Language Education in Canada 199
Callie Mady and Katy Arnett

Index 201