ORGANIZATIONAL ASSESSMENT AND IMPROVEMENT IN THE PUBLIC SECTOR WORKBOOK

KATHLEEN M. IMMORDINO
Contents

Acknowledgments .......................................................... ix
Introduction ................................................................................ xi
About the Author ................................................................. xv

1 Understanding Organizational Assessment ................................. 1
   Organizational Assessment and the Public Sector ......................... 1
   Understanding the Demand for Effectiveness and Efficiency ............ 4
   What Is Organizational Assessment? ........................................... 8
   The Benefits of Assessment ................................................... 14
   Endnotes .............................................................................. 18

2 Determining Readiness for Assessment ....................................... 23
   Consider the Source ................................................................ 24
   Determining Readiness for Assessment ....................................... 26
   Leadership Support ................................................................ 27
   Timing and Agency Priorities .................................................. 28
   The Election Cycle. .............................................................. 30
   The Internal View: Workforce Climate ....................................... 30
   The External View: Constituent Relations ................................... 31
   Evaluating Organizational Readiness ........................................ 33
   Endnotes .............................................................................. 34

3 Planning the Assessment ......................................................... 45
   Define the Scope of the Assessment .......................................... 46
   Organizational Components .................................................. 46
   Topic Areas .......................................................................... 49
   Choosing an Assessment Model .............................................. 51
   Information Gathering Models ............................................... 51
   Less Structured Models ....................................................... 51
   Structured Self-Assessment Models ......................................... 52
Structured Assessment Processes Adapted for the Public Sector

Choosing an Implementation Method

Balancing the Available Time Frame with the Available Resources

Methods

Survey

Workshop

Project Team

Organization-Wide Team

Identifying an Individual or Team to Lead the Effort

Using a Trained Facilitator

Communicate Plans for the Assessment

Endnotes

4 Engaging Employees in the Assessment Process

Engaging the Employees

The Importance of People in the Information Collection Process

Identifying Participating Groups and Individual Participants

Horizontal Knowledge

Vertical Knowledge

Leader Participation

How to Prepare People for Participation

Endnotes

5 Conducting the Assessment

Stage 1: Understanding the Current State of the Organization

Information Collection and Exchange

Information Collection: The Organizational Profile

Information Collection: The Assessment Categories

How Is the Information Collected?

Negotiation and Consensus Building

Stage 2: Visioning and Gap Analysis

Identifying Strengths and Opportunities for Improvement

Endnotes

PSAI Organizational Profile Worksheet

A. Organizational Purpose

B. Structure

C. Demographics