Globalization

Prospects and Problems

JoAnn Chirico

Pennsylvania State University, Beaver
Contents

Introduction
  Plan of the Book  3

Chapter One: The World Has Gone Global
  Objectives  6
  Defining Globalization  8
  International, Multinational, Transnational, and Supranational  11
  The Subjective Dimension of Globalization  12
    Public Opinion and Globalization in the United States  12
    Perceiving a Common Humanity  13
  The Objective Bases of Globalization  15
    Economic Basis of Globalization  15
    Political Basis of Globalization  17
    Cultural Basis of Globalization  18
    Globalization and Identity  19
    Globalization of Civil Society  21
    Facilitating Globalization  22
  Migration  24
  Dating Globalization  25
  Globalization as Change  28
  Summary  29
  Questions, Investigations, and Resources  30

Chapter Two: Studying Globalization
  Objectives  33
  World Risk Society  34
  Runaway World  35
  Globalization From Below  36
  Feasible Globalization  37
  World Systems Perspective  39
    Core, Semi-Periphery, and Peripheral Societies  40
    Hegemonic Stability, Decline, and Rivalry  40
    A Prognosis for Globalization From the WSP  41
    Global Systems Theory  41
    Prognosis of GST  43
    World Society Theory  43
    The Global "Scapes"  45
    Mechanisms of Convergence  47
    The Global Field  49
      The Elements of the Global Field: Humanity  51
      The Individual  52
      Societies  52
      The Global Systems  53
      Case Study: Economic Integration and Globalization  54
        Explaining Economic Waves and Trends  55
      Summary  56
      Questions, Investigations, and Resources  58

Chapter Three: Setting the Stage: Foundations Globalization
  Objectives  60
  Waves of Nationhood  61
    The Germinal Phase: The Treaty of Westphalia and the Principle of Sovereignty  61
    Expanding the System of States System to the Americas  62
    Spreading the Nation-State East  65
  Early Waves of Economic Globalization  65
    The Silk Road Into the Middle Ages  65
    Expansion of Mercantile Capitalism  67
Chapter Nine: Globalizing Culture: Change and Continuity 254
Objectives 254
Meaning in the Global Age 255
Who Puts Italian in Italian Food? 255
Creating and Negotiating Culture in Interaction 256
Anomie and Globalization 257
Flows of Cultural Diffusion 258
Conversion and Divergence in Globalization 263
Global Forms and Local Content 263
Sources of Diversity in Globalization 264
Case Study: Selling Soaps in Egypt 267
Global Culture: Compromise and Clash 268
Rationalization and Alienation 268
Consumerism 270
Individualism 273
The Demise of Americanization 274
Case Study: Popular Art: “What’s Burmese About Burmese Rap?” 275
Cultural Flows Emerging From Global Life 276
Interconnectivity 277
Imagining Mobility 278
Security 280
Humanity and Human Rights 280
Multiculturalism and Cosmopolitanism 281
Summary: Reorienting The Global Field 282
Questions, Investigations, and Resources 283

Chapter Ten: Globalization and Everyday Life 285
Objectives 285
The Role of Institutions in Social Life 285
Globalization and Institutional Reform 285
The Take-Off Phase and Challenges of Rationalization 286
The Contemporary Period and the Rejection of Hyper-Rationality 286
Education 287
The Evolution of Universal Education 288
The Status of Education Globally 290
Rational Models of Education 296
Education and National Identity 298
Global Patterns of Health and Health Care 299
The Quality of Health 299
Epidemics and Pandemics 302
The Rationalization of Health Care 303
Reforming Medicine and Reviving Traditional Practices 304
The Global Health Community 307
Sports 309
Rationalization and Standardization of Sports 310
Internationalizing Sports 311
Global Migration of Sports Labor 313
Sports and the Particular: Identity 313
Sports as Big Business 317
Extreme Sports 318
Summary 320
Questions, Investigations, and Resources 320

Chapter Eleven: Religion: Conflict and Compromise 322
Objectives 322
Religious Issues in the Take-Off Phase, 1870-1920 324
Modernizing Religion: Reconciling With Science, Secularization, and Social Problems 324
Reaching Out to Other Faiths: Ecumenism 327