Social Issues in Contemporary Native America
Reflections from Turtle Island

Edited by
HILARY N. WEAVER
University at Buffalo, SUNY, USA

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Figures vii
Notes on Contributors ix

Introduction 1

PART I POLICY FOUNDATIONS

1 Sovereignty, Dependency, and the Spaces in Between: An Examination of United States Social Policy and Native Americans 7
Hilary N. Weaver

2 Legally Entrenched Oppressions: The Undercurrent of First Nations Peoples’ Experiences with Canada’s Social Welfare Policies 23
Michael Anthony Hart and Gladys Rowe

PART II SOCIAL WORK: PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE

3 Social Services and Indigenous Peoples of North America: Pre-Colonial to Contemporary Times 45
Andrea Tamburro and Paul-René Tamburro

4 A Standpoint View of the Social Work Profession and Indigenous Peoples in the United States: From the Profession’s Origins through its First Century 59
Robert E. “Bob” Prue

5 Reflecting Out of the Box: Locating Place and Practice in the Decolonization of Social Work 77
Diane McEachern

PART III INDIGENOUS PEOPLES ACROSS THE LIFE CYCLE

6 Raising Healthy American Indian Children: An Indigenous Perspective 93
Priscilla A. Day
PART IV WELL-BEING AND THE COMMUNITY CONTEXT

10 Violence in the Lives of Native Americans
   Hilary N. Weaver

11 Indigenous Women and Sexual Assault:
   Implications for Intersectionality
   Roe Bubar

12 Culture is Medicine that Works
   Lewis Mehl-Madrona and Barbara Mainguy

13 Building Assets in Tribal Communities
   Amy Locklear Hertel, Kristen Wagner, and Jessica Black

14 Mosquito Advocacy: Change Promotion Strategies for Small Groups with Big Ideas
   Cindy Blackstock

   Conclusion

Index