Arctic opening: insecurity and opportunity

Christian Le Mière and Jeffrey Mazo

IISS The International Institute for Strategic Studies
Contents

List of acronyms 7

Acknowledgements 8

Introduction 9
What is the Arctic? 11
Geography and hydrography 15
A moving target 16

Chapter One  The warming Arctic: contexts 19
Historical background 19
The changing climate 23
The Arctic today 29
Legal framework 33
Non-governance: the Arctic Council 39
Conclusion 41

Chapter Two  Economic opportunities 47
Energy 48
Non-energy resources and industries 55
Fisheries and forestry 60
Tourism 61
Maritime shipping routes 62
Conclusions 70

Chapter Three  The Arctic as a theatre of military operations 77
The Arctic as a strategic space 78
Russia’s northern front 83
Nordic cooperation 87
North America’s Arctic presence 91
Zone of cooperation 94
Lack of a security architecture 97

Chapter Four  Paramilitary and constabulary activity 101
The US Coast Guard in the Arctic 102
Canada’s capabilities 105
Norway, Iceland and Denmark 107
Russia’s non-military agencies 109
The Arctic Council agreements 110
Multilateral coordination 112
The future of Arctic constabulary forces 114