Routledge Handbook of the History of Global Economic Thought

Edited by Vincent Barnett
Contents

Contributors viii

1 Introduction 1
   Vincent Barnett

PART I Europe 15

2 England 17
   Roger Middleton

3 Scotland 38
   Alexander Dow and Sheila Dow

4 Ireland 48
   Renee Prendergast

5 Italy 58
   Pier Luigi Porta

6 Greece 68
   Michalis M. Psalidopoulos

7 Spain and Portugal 77
   José Luís Cardoso and Luis Perdices de Blas

8 Germany: from sciences of state to modern economics 86
   Erik Grimmer-Solem

9 Sweden 95
   Lars Magnusson

10 Russia and Ukraine 102
    François Allisson
PART II
The Americas

11 United States of America
J.E. King
113

12 Canada
Robin Neill
130

13 Mexico and Central America
Richard Weiner
140

14 The Caribbean
Mark Figueroa
149

15 Spanish-speaking South America: politicized economic thought
Verónica Montecinos
158

16 Brazil: a very big and complicated country
Patrice Franko
167

PART III
The Middle East

17 Turkey and the Turkic linguistic zone: the case that doesn’t quite fit
Eyiip Özveren
179

18 Israel
Yuval Yonay and Arie Krampf
189

19 Arab-Islamic Economics
S.M. Ghazanfar
202

20 Persia/Iran
Hamid Hosseini
216

21 North Africa: from boom to bust to revolution
Hamed El-Said
228

PART IV
Africa

22 West Africa
Gareth Austin and Gerardo Serra
243
23 Southern Africa
   Tidings P. Ndhlovu and Nene Ernest Khalema

24 Angola and Mozambique: Marxist or market?
   Steven Kyle

PART V

The Asia-Pacific region

25 Australia and New Zealand: a young tree dead?
   William Coleman

26 China: 2,500 years of economic thought
   Zagros Madjd-Sadjadi

27 Southeast Asia: Indonesia and Malaysia
   Cassey Lee and Thee Kian Wie

28 The Asian Tigers
   Takashi Kanatsu

29 India
   Balakrishnan Chandrasekaran

30 Conclusion
   Vincent Barnett

Author index 341
Place index 346