Democratic Deliberation in Deeply Divided Societies
From Conflict to Common Ground

Edited by

Juan E. Ugarriza
Principal Professor, Faculty of Law, El Rosario University, Colombia

and

Didier Caluwaerts
Democracy Fellow, Harvard Kennedy School, USA
Contents

List of Illustrations ix
Acknowledgments x
Notes on Contributors xi

1 Deliberation in Contexts of Conflict: An Introduction
Juan E. Ugarriza and Didier Caluwaerts 1

Part I Obstacles and Opportunities for Deliberation in Divided Societies

2 Deliberative Democracy in Northern Ireland:
Opportunities and Challenges for Consensus in a Consociational System
Katy Hayward 11

3 Deliberative Stress in Linguistically Divided Belgium
Didier Caluwaerts and Min Reuchamps 35

4 Deliberation and Democracy at the End of Armed Conflict:
Postconflict Opportunities in the Basque Country
Sanjay Jeram and Daniele Conversi 53

5 The Citizens, the Politicians and the Courts: A Preliminary Assessment of Deliberative Capacity in Colombia
Małgorzata M. Orozco and Juan E. Ugarriza 73

6 Barriers to Inter-group Deliberation in Divided Ukraine
Anastasiya Salnykova 89

7 Federalist Deliberative Democracy in Nigeria: Challenges and Prospects
Olabanji Akinola 112

8 Manipulative Deliberation in Turkey: Alevis' Defective
Political Engagement and Remedying Strategies
Kivanç Ulusoy 129
9 Language Policy and Inter-group Deliberation in Israel
Aviad Rubin

10 Experiences with Deliberation in the Islamic Republic of Iran
Sahar Aurore Saeidnia

Part II What Does a Deliberative Democracy Look Like in a Divided Society?

11 When Deliberation Remains Out of Reach: The Role of Agonistic Engagement in Divided Societies
Sarah Maddison

12 Beating the Odds: Confrontational Deliberative Democracy
Didier Caluwaerts and Juan E. Ugarriza

Index