GLOBAL ENERGY
ASSESSMENT AND OUTLOOK

Proceedings of the International Scientific Forum on Changes in Energy held in Mexico City, Mexico, November 9-13, 1981

Edited by Behram N. Kurşunoğlu
Arnold Perlmutter
Linda Scott

Center for Theoretical Studies
University of Miami

harwood academic publishers
chur • london • paris • new york
CONTENTS

Prologue Session
JAIME MARTUSCELLI ix
FERNANDO HIRIART xi
Welcome from the Government of Mexico xiii
FERNANDO HIRIART
Opening Remarks
BEHRAM N. KURŞUNOĞLU xxi
VICTOR L. URQUIDI xxv

The World Energy Outlook 1
S. FRED SINGER

Energy Outlook for Developing Countries:
New Burdens or New Opportunities? 5
MAURICE F. STRONG

Natural Gas: A Transition Resource 13
MANUEL I. GUERRERO

Perspectives on Renewable Energy Sources in Mexico 23
MANUEL MARTINEZ

U.S. Coal Exports: A Reliable Supply for Future World Growth in Coal 31
MARIO CARDULLO

Dilemmas in Energy Strategies for the Third World:
Lessons from India's Experience 51
D. R. PENDSE

Changes in Energy Consumption and Supply in Denmark 83
KNUD MØLLENBACH AND NIELS E. BUSCH
CONTENTS

French Energy Research Problems in Relation to National Energy Goals 91
ACHILLE FERRARI

Problems in Public Perception of Nuclear Power: Fears and Risks Analyzed 107
DIXY LEE RAY

United States Domestic and International Nuclear Policies Established under the Reagan Administration 111
BENARD C. RUSCHE

The Status of Nuclear Fusion Research 117
SHOICHI YOSHIKAWA

The Role of Nuclear Energy in the Italian National Energy Plan 123
R. DI MENZA

Constraints on Nuclear Power Development in the United States 129
W. W. BRANDFON

Mexico’s Nuclear Power Program 131
JUAN EIBENSCHUTZ

Nuclear Energy: A Challenge for Industrializing Countries 137
AKBAR ETEMAD

Technology and Economics of Nuclear Power Development in India 145
HOMI N. SETHNA

. . . And Now for the Good News 153
J. A. L. ROBERTSON

The Nuclear Electric Option in Developing Countries: Technical, Economic, and Political Problems 159
FERNANDO ALBA ANDRADE

Perspectives of the Electric Sector in Venezuela 163
RAFAEL T. GUDINO

The Future Role of Electricity in Mexico 195
GUILLERMO FERNANDEZ DE LA GARZA
| CONTENTS |
|-----------------|-----------|
| Some Aspects of the Future Role of Electricity in Brazil | 211 |
| JERZY LEPECKI |
| The Future Role of Electricity in the Far East | 225 |
| LEONARD F. C. REICHLE |
| Financing the Expansions of the Electrical Sector in Mexico | 251 |
| ALBERTO ESCOFET ARTIGAS |
| Financing in Energy Development | 263 |
| JEAN L. GABRIEL |
| Financing of Energy Development in the Developing Countries | 277 |
| ERNEST STERN |
| Environmental Effects of the Utilization of Energy Sources | 291 |
| VICENTE SANCHEZ |
| Natural Resource Commitments of Long-Term Energy Supply Options | 305 |
| ARNULF GRÜBLER |
| Energy and Environment in Sweden | 325 |
| KJELL HÅKANSSON |
| The French Electronuclear Program and the Protection of the Environment | 359 |
| PAUL GODIN |
| Perceptions of the Energy Problematique | 381 |
| GERHART BRUCKMANN |
| Remarks on Environmental Aspects of Energy | 393 |
| GERHART BRUCKMANN |
| Canada’s Contribution to Energy Self-Sufficiency for North America | 397 |
| J. P. GALLAGHER |
| Birth and Characteristics of Petroleos Mexicanos | 429 |
| JULIO RODOLFO MOCTEZUMA |
Problems of Developing Technological Capacity in the Energy Field in Developing Countries
ARNOLDO K. VENTURA

Energy Planning for Development: Needs and Approaches
VINOD MUBAYI

A Latin American Program in Technology of Energy: A Preliminary Proposal
JORGE A. SABATO AND ALBERTO ARAOZ

The Caribbean Region: A Challenge for Alternative Energy Technology Transfer and Development
KENNETH G. SODERSTROM AND JUAN A. BONNET, JR.

Population, Food, and Energy: The Prospects for Worldwide Economic Growth to the Year 2030
WASSILY LEONTIEF AND IRA SOHN

International Energy Technology Transfer
JOHN E. GRAY

Mexican Participation in the Program of Cooperation on Energy Sources in Central America and the Caribbean: The First Year of Operation
ADRIAN LAJOUS VARGAS

Technical Cooperation of the International Organization of Atomic Energy
CARLOS VELEZ OCON

The Mexican Energy Proposal
JORGE EDUARDO NAVARRETE

International Cooperation
FERNANDO E. PRIETO

White Paper