PROCEEDINGS
SECOND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ENGINEERING MANAGEMENT
Managing Technology in a Competitive International Environment
September 10 - 13, 1989
Sheraton Centre
Toronto, Ontario, Canada

SPONSORING SOCIETIES

Engineering Institute of Canada
American Institute of Chemical Engineers
American Society for Engineering Management
American Society of Mechanical Engineers
Chinese Society of Astronautics & Aeronautics
Institute of Electrical & Electronic Engineers
Institute of Industrial Engineers
National Society of Professional Engineers
EIC General Members Society
Management of Technology and Innovation Institute

IEEE Catalog No.: 89CH2801-9
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Session 1: The Technology Innovation Process

Sprinting From The Lab To The Marketplace, PRESTON G. SMITH, New Product Dynamics, West Hartford, CT, USA
3

New Product Idea Generating Processes In Large Technology Based Firms, NORMAN W. McGUINNNESS, Acadia University, Wolfville, Nova Scotia, Canada
7

The "Sweet Spot" In The New Product Introduction Process, CORINNE AUGUSTINE and ANTHONY BROWN, Sun Microsystems, Inc., Mountain View, CA, USA
15

Criteria For Innovative Research, Development, And Engineering Performance, HANS J. THAMHAIN and JUDITH KAMM, Bentley College, Waltham, Massachusetts, USA 20

Session 2: Managing The Design Process

Developing One-Of-A-Kind Systems Systematically, ARNOLD M. RUSKIN, JOHN B. CARRAWAY and MICHAEL J. SINGER, Jet Propulsion Laboratory, California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, California, USA 29

Managing Multi-Discipline Project Design In A Highly Competitive Marketplace, ALVIN HARDEMAN SEABORN, JR., Barge, Waggoner, Sumner and Cannon, Nashville, Tennessee, USA
39

45

Organizational Features That Nurture Design Success In Business Enterprises, ALAN TOPALIAN, Alto Design Management, London, UK USA
50

Session 3: Managing Technological Change

Strategic Adjustments In Technological Upgrading, KAM B. CHUNG, Nanyang Technological Institute, Singapore
61

Managing Change In The Design Process Caused By Implementation Of CADD In Consulting Engineering Firms, BRIAN J. LEWIS, GREGORY P. SHEA and THOMAS KVAN, The Coxe Group, Philadelphia, PA, USA
67
Technological Change, Organizational Design, And The Skills Of Engineers And Managers, HELENE DENIS, University of Montreal, Montreal, Quebec, Canada and HARVEY F. KOLODNY, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

The Measurement Of Entropy In Engineering Work Groups, DAVID A. WYRICK, University of Minnesota, Duluth, Minnesota, USA

Session 4: Applying Technology For Productivity And Quality

Managing For Productivity In Engineering Design: Review And A Case Study, HAL A. RUMSEY, AFIT/LSG, Wright-Patterson AFB OH, and RUSSELL L. THOMPSON, Captain, USAF, USA

The Management Of Quality At The Product/Market Interface, ALBERT E. J. BACHMANN, Florida Institute Of Technology, Melbourne, FL, USA

Session 5: Technology Management Education

The Role Of Masters Degrees In Engineering Management In Producing Managers Of Technology, MERL BAKER, University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, Tennessee, USA

Managing Technology Innovation, RICHARD C. DORF, University of California, Davis, CA, USA

Strategies In Australian Engineering Management Education and Training For Managing Technology In An Increasingly Competitive International Environment, BRIAN E. LLOYD, EPM Consulting Group, Brighton East, Victoria, Australia, EDMUND J. YOUNG, South Australia Institute Of Technology, Adelaide, South Australia, Australia, and DANIEL L. BABCOCK, University of Missouri - Rolla, Missouri, USA

McMaster University's Five-Year Undergraduate Engineering And Management Program, DONALD R. WOODS, McMaster University, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, and D. CAMERON LONEY, DCL Associates, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada

Session 6: The Effective Management Of Technology

Technology Implementation Management, DONALD D. TIPPETT, University of Tennessee Space institute, Tullahoma, Tennessee, USA
Session 7: Maintaining Technical Vitality

Keeping Current With Changing Technologies, VINCE L. CAREY, IBM Canada Laboratory, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Encouraging Active Membership In Professional Organizations, EDWARD W. BROWNING, Consumers Power Company, Jackson, Michigan, USA

Engineers, Personalities, Perceptions, and Strategy, MICHAEL W. PRINCE, University of Windsor, Windsor, Ontario, Canada

Technology And Productivity: Strategic Human Resource Management Issues, MICHAEL K. BADAWAY, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, Falls Church, VA, USA

Session 8: The Strategic Use Of Technology For Competitive Advantage

Computer Contributions To Competitive Advantage, PHILIP C. TERRY, Burns & Mcdonnell Engineering Company, Kansas City, Missouri, USA

Managing Technology For Competitive Leverage, THOMAS F. WHEELER, American Express Company, Phoenix, AZ, USA

Manufacturing Systems Integration: Organisation and Implementation, PETER R. N. BARRAR, A. GEOFF LOCKETT and IAN R. TANNER, University of Manchester, Manchester, England

Technology: A Strategic Management Tool, W. DAVID HEASLIP, ORTECH International, Mississauga, Ontario, Canada

Session 9: Defining Markets In A Rapidly Changing Technology

Technology Gaming, DALE K. PACE, The Johns Hopkins University Applied Physics Laboratory, Laurel, Maryland, USA

Public Relations And Client Development In Consulting Engineering, JOSEPH F. SINGER, University of Missouri, Kansas City, Missouri, USA
Dynamic Technology And Marketing, ROBERT C. BURTON, IBM Corporation, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, USA

Defining Technology Requirements Using Functional Analysis, ED REPIC, Effective Management Resources Corporation, Los Angeles, CA, USA

Session 10: New Technology In The Manufacturing Process

Post-Purchase Decision Rationale For Process Innovation, JOHN E. ETTLEIE and JOAN PENNER-HAHN, The University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI, USA

Managing Manufacturing Process Innovation For Discrete Parts Manufacturing And Assembly, L. SCOT DUNCAN, North Coast Innovation, Inc., Cleveland, OH, USA

Session 11: Technology Transfer

Precursory Technology Knowledge: The Most Important And Elusive Variable In The Global Competitive Formula, E. DOUGLAS HARRIS and TERESA LYNN FRIEL, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas, USA

Status Of The Center For Advanced Space Propulsion, GEORGE W. GARRISON, The Center For Advanced Space Propulsion, Tullahoma, TN, USA

Facilitated Technology Transfer, ROBERT J. PARDEN, Santa Clara University, Santa Clara, CA, USA

Technology Transfer: A Quantitative Model With A Case Study, WIN GER LIU and CHANG YAO GU, Beijing University of Aeronautics and Astronautics, Beijing, P.R. China

Session 12: Strategic Partnerships

Lessons From Canadian R&D Consortia, MARK ABBOTT, Ontario Science Centre, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, BARBARA GEDDES, Queen’s University, Kingston, Ontario, Canada, and JOSEPH JONES, Canadian Institute of Guided Ground Transport, Canada

Strategic Partnering: Lessons From The New Biotechnology Industry, JANET E. FORREST, Acadia University, Wolfville, Nova Scotia, Canada, and MICHAEL J.C. MARTIN, Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada
An Evaluation Of Technology Acquisition Via OEM Relationships,
KEVIN J. KENNEDY and WAYNE A. BROWN, ATT Laboratories,
Middletown, N.J., USA

Extracting Maximum Benefit From An International R&D Partnership -
A Case Study Of A Japanese Industrial Laboratory, YUTAKA
KUWAHARA, Hitachi, Ltd., Tokyo, Japan

Session 13: Technology Planning And Forecasting

Strategic Planning For Research And Development, LEE A. PETERS,
Peters & Company, Indianapolis, IN, USA

Creating Value Through A Product Technology Strategy, DOUGLAS L.
REPLOGLE, Booz, Allen & Hamilton Inc., Cleveland, Ohio, USA

Describing The Uncertainty In Technological Forecasts, TED G.
ESCHENBACH, University of Missouri - Rolla, Rolla, Missouri, USA

Technology Forecasting To Aid Product Development, CAESAR
CESARATTO, Bell-Northern Research, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada

Session 14: Managing Technology In A Distributed Environment

Strategies For Multinational Corporations Operating in Less Developed Countries, CHRISTIAN N. MADU, Pace University, New York, New York, USA

Managing Telecommunications Technology In A Global Environment,
JOSEPH U. LEBLANC, MITRE Corporation, Tampa, Florida, USA

Managing A Multi-Site Development Project, PETER M. ENG and JOANNE E. DOWNEY, IBM Canada Laboratory, North York,
Ontario, Canada

Technical Innovation In Multinational Manufacturing, ARUN
PRADEEP SINHA, Indian Institute of Technology, Kanpur, India

Session 15: International Competitiveness

Is American Technological Leadership A Thing Of The Past?,
NATHAN H. HURT, Los Alamos Technical Associates, Inc.,
Albuquerque, New Mexico, USA

The Strategic Management Of Technology In A Global Economy: A
Canadian Perspective, ALAN M. RUGMAN and ALAIN VERBEKE,
University Of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

International Competitiveness And Management Techniques For High-Tech
Industries, LI DALI, TAN XIUJUN, Chinese Aeronautical
Establishment, Beijing, P.R. China
Session 16: Impact Of New Technologies On Job Design

Product Focused Forms To Complement Flexible Technologies, HARVEY F. KOLODNY, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Design Of Engineering Organization And Jobs To Optimize Performance Of A High-Tech Rolling Mill, JOHN BURKE, ALCOA, Inc., Alcoa, Tennessee, USA, and RAY SVENSON, Svenson & Wallace, Inc., Wheaton, IL, USA

Changes In Technology In Electronics Manufacturing Processes: Impacts On Job Content And Job Satisfaction, DAN ONDRACK and SHARON MASON, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Mapping The Impact Of Technology On Organizations: A Generic Framework, ARKALGUD RAMAPRASAD and SALLY DRESDOW, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, IL, USA

Session 17: Managing The Technical Organization

How To Wean A Single Proprietor From A Small Company For Fun And Profit, JON MYNTTI, Wright State University, Celina, Ohio, USA

Barriers And Facilitators To Technical Entrepreneurship In The Large Firm, ALBERT H. RUBENSTEIN, ELIEZER GEISLER, and PETER LAI Northwestern University, Evanston, IL, USA

The New Role Of Engineering Managers In Today's Technology Dominated Environment, JEROME (JERRY) G. LAKE, University of Maryland University College, College Park, MD, USA

Technology Sophistication Levels Require Quite Different Management Strategies In The Management Of Competitive Technology, E. DOUGLAS HARRIS and TERESA LYNN FRIEL, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas

Session 18: Technology Impacts on Society

Cottage Industry To Corporate Enterprise And Beyond, ROSALIND CAIRNCROSS, HALTECH, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Selling Engineering And Science To Pre-Highschoolers: A Success story From A Low Income Neighborhood School, WILLIAM W. SWART, LINDA C. MALONE, and MARIE M. JIMENEZ University of Central Florida, Orlando, Florida, USA

Engineers Almost In A Union, EARL A. MCCABE, JR., Westinghouse Electric Corp., West Mifflin, PA, USA
Positive Pollution Prevention: Changing Burdens Into Profits Through Management And R&D, ERIC MIN-YANG WANG Lulea University, Lulea, Sweden

Session 19: Intellectual Property And The Protection Of Technology

The Protection Of Technology, JOYCE BORDEN REED Motorola Canada Ltd, North York, Ontario, Canada

Software Copyright, Separating The Ideas, Functions, Constraints And Expression Contained in An Author's Object Code, DEREK K.W. SMITH, IBM Canada Ltd., Markham, Ontario, Canada

Managing Technology In A Competitive International Environment, ROBERT NALLY, University of Waterloo, Waterloo, Ontario, Canada

Technology Licensing, GERVAS WALL, Blake, Cassels & Gradon, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Session 20: ASME Selected Topics

International Strategies For The Technology Manager, ARNOLD J. ROTHSTEIN, The Facilities Services Company, North Palm Beach, FL, USA

Managing Productivity More Effectively, ERNEST L. KISTLER, Barksdale Air Force Base, LA, USA

Managing To Revitalize American Manufacturing, H. ARTHUR WIEGAND, Wiegand Consulting Inc., Bridgewater, NJ, USA

Approaches To Reducing Product Development Lead Times, RICHARD A. FERRARO Management Consultant, Rockville, MD, USA

Workshop 4: Strategies for Managing Technical Professionals

Strategies For Managing Technical Professionals, HENRY L. MORSE IBM Corporation, Edison, New Jersey
