TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword ........................................................................................................................... xi

Welcome from the Conference Chair ............................................................................. xv

Finding International Contracting Opportunities: AI Extensions to EDI
Ronald M. Lee and Sandra Donaldson Dewitz, University of Texas, Austin .................. 1

A New Approach for Conflict Resolution and Rule Processing in a Knowledge-Based System
Akhil Kumar, Cornell University ..................................................................................... 15

The Design of Computer Based Support for Task Communication within Organizations
Surinder Singh Kahai, University of Michigan, and Randolph Cooper, University of Houston .... 25

An Evaluation of Electronic Meeting Systems to Support Strategic Management
Alan R. Dennis, Craig K. Tyran, Douglas R. Vogel, and J. F. Nunamaker Jr., University of Arizona .... 37

Structuration Theory and Information Systems Research
Geoff Walsham and Chun-Kwong Han, Cambridge University ........................................ 53

Toward a Theory of the Deep Structure of Information Systems
Yair Wand, The University of British Columbia, and Ron Weber, The University of Queensland ........ 61

Cross-Cultural Information Technology Research: The Case of Eastern Europe and the USSR
William K. McHenry, Georgetown University; Joel Snyder and Kevin Lynch, University of Arizona .... 73

Institutions and the International Diffusion of Information Technology
V. Gurbaxani, J. L. King, and K. L. Kraemer, University of California, Irvine; F. W. McFarlan, Harvard Business School; and K. S. Raman and C. S. Yap, National University of Singapore ....... 87

Abstraction Based Modeling: An Empirical Study of the Process
Ananth Srinivasan and Dov Te'eni, Case Western Reserve University .................................. 99

A Comparison of the Data Aggregation Approach with the Logical Relational Design Methodology
Dinesh Batra and Peeter J. Kirs, Florida International University ..................................... 111

Desktop Computerization as a Continuing Process
Mary Zmuidzinas and Rob Kling, University of California, Irvine; and Joey George, University of Arizona .... 123

A Diffusion of Innovation Approach to MIS Infusion: Conceptualization, Methodology and Management Strategies
Tae Hyoung Kwon, Hankuk University of Foreign Studies .............................................. 139

Case-Based Reasoning in Software Effort Estimation
Steven Vicinanza, Michael J. Prietula, and Tridas Mukhopadhyay, Carnegie Mellon University ........ 149

On the Economics of the Software Replacement Problem
Dhananjay K. Gode, Anitesh Barua, and Tridas Mukhopadhyay, Carnegie Mellon University ........ 159
Computer Training and Computer Anxiety in the Educational Process: An Experimental Analysis
Jane Webster and James B. Hcian, The Pennsylvania State University; and Jeffrey E. Michelman, University of North Florida .................................................. 171

User Information Satisfaction: Toward Conceptual Clarity
K. Kyu Kim, Inha University .................................................................................... 183

Strategic Information Systems in Manufacturing Industries
Mogens Kühn Pedersen, Roskilde University Centre ................................................... 193

The Use of Strategic Information Technology by Entrepreneurial Firms
Peter Weill, University of Melbourne, and Marianne Broadbent, Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology . 205

Allocation of Databases in a Distributed Database System
Sudha Ram, University of Arizona, and Sridhar Narasimhan, Georgia Institute of Technology ............. 215

Issues in Distributed Model Management Systems
Waleed A. Muhanna, The Ohio State University ...................................................... 231

A Source Tagging Theory for Heterogeneous Database Systems
Y. Richard Wang and Stuart E. Madnick, Massachusetts Institute of Technology ...................... 243

Systems Developers: Preoccupations, Knowledge and Power
Hugh Willmott, Manchester School of Management; Jan Mouritsen, Per Flensburg, and Bente Elkjaer, Copenhagen Business School ..................................................................... 257

What Is an "End-User"? Identifying Multiple Relationships Among Information System Users
C. J. Martin, Loughborough University ........................................................................ 265

Approaches to Strategic Information Systems Planning Experience in Twenty-One United Kingdom Companies
Michael J. Earl, London Business School ...................................................................... 271

An Agency Theory View of the Management of End-User Computing
Vijay Gurbaxani, University of California, Irvine, and Chris F. Kemerer, Massachusetts Institute of Technology ..................................................... 279

An Empirical Test for the Expansion-Control Model for Managing End-User Computing
James C. Brancheau, University of Colorado, Boulder, and Donald L. Amoroso, University of Colorado, Colorado Springs ............................................. 291
PANELS

Track Chairs: Jon A. Turner, New York University, and Claudio Ciborra, University of Trento

Panel 1: National IT Policies in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union (Session M2.3)
Panel Chair: Seymour Goodman, University of Arizona
Panelists: Dmitri S. Chereshkin, Academy of Sciences
Adrian Davidoviciu, National Commission on Informatics
Tomasz Jarmoszko, The MOSAIC Group, University of Arizona
Wladyslaw Turski, University of Warsaw
Tibor Vamos, Academy of Sciences

Panel 2: Lessons Learned from Information Technology Research on Small Organizations (Session M2.4)
Panel Chair: William H. DeLone, The American University
Panelists: Gunnar E. Christensen, Norwegian School of Economics and Business Administration
K. S. Raman, National University of Singapore
Louis Raymond, Université du Quebec a Trois-Rivieres

Panel 3: Approaches to the MBA Core Course in Information Systems (Session M3.2)
Panel Chair: Edward A. Stohr, New York University
Panelists: Tawfik Jelassi, INSEAD
Stuart E. Madnick, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
James L. McKenney, Harvard Business School
James A. Senn, Georgia State University
Mark S. Silver, University of California

Panel 4: Executive Information Systems: Assessing Impacts and Value (Session M3.3)
Panel Chair: Joyce J. Elam, Florida International University
Panelists: Tom Clark, Florida State University
Hisham El Sherif, The American University in Cairo and Information and Decision Support Center, Cabinet of Egypt
Jack Rockart, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Introduction to Mini-Track: Perspectives in Information Systems Research (Panels 5 and 6)
Izak Benbasat, University of British Columbia

Panel 5: Making Sense of Quantitative Data in Information Systems Research: Tradeoffs, Strengths and Weaknesses of Three Approaches to Analyzing Empirical Data (Session M3.4)
Panel Chair: Dale Goodhue, University of Minnesota
Panelists: Fred Davis, University of Michigan
Ron Thompson, University of Vermont

Panel 6: Making Sense of Qualitative Data in Information Systems Research (Session M4.4)
Panel Chair: Allen S. Lee, Northeastern University
Panelists: Richard Boland, Case Western Reserve University
M. Lynne Markus, University of California, Los Angeles
Michael Newman, University of Manchester
(Session M4.2)
Panel Chair: Gordon B. Davis, University of Minnesota
Panelists: Clive Holtham, City University of London Business School
Herbert E. Longenecker, University of South Alabama
Jay F. Nunamaker, University of Arizona
Andreil Sole, Haute Études Commerciales Jouy-en-Josas

Panel 8: Developing Global Information Technology Applications (Session M4.3)
Panel Chair: Blake Ives, Southern Methodist University
Panelists: Sirkka Jarvenpaa, University of Texas, Austin
Alex Mayall, Index Group
Edward Roche, University of Arizona
John Shepherd, Air Products Europe

Introduction to Mini-Track: Information Technology and Tomorrow's Organization (Panels 9, 10, and 11)
Michael J. Ginzberg, Case Western Reserve University

Panel 9: Information Technology and Tomorrow's Organization: The Potential for Change
(Session T2.3)
Panel Chair: Lynda M. Applegate, Harvard University
Panelists: John L. King, University of California, Irvine
Klaus Lenk, University of Oldenburg
Daniel Robey, Florida International University
Robert W. Zmud, Florida State University

Panel 10: Information Technology and Tomorrow's Organization: New Models for the Global Enterprise (Session T3.3)
Panel Chair: Robert M. Mason, Case Western Reserve University
Panelists: Donald Feldman, BP Oil Europe
Benn R. Konsynski, Harvard Business School
Ronald G. Smart, Digital Equipment Corporation
Charles B. Stabell, Norwegian School of Management

Panel 11: Information Technology and Tomorrow's Organization: Coordination and Control in Devolving Organizations (Session T4.3)
Panel Chair: Robert W. Blanning, Vanderbilt University
Panelists: Richard M. Burton, Duke University
Børge Obel, Odense University
Michael J. Prietula, Carnegie-Mellon University
Ann C. Séror, Université Laval

Panel 12: Recent Advances in Supporting Collaborative Work (Session T2.4)
Panel Chair: Judith S. Olson, University of Michigan
Panelists: Paul Cornell, Steelcase, Inc.
Stephen Gale, Hewlett-Packard Laboratories
Helmut A. O. Krcmar, University Hohenheim
Robert Luchetti, Robert Luchetti Associates, Inc.
Gary M. Olson, University of Michigan
Panel 13: Telecommunications Reform in Europe: Implications for Information Systems Management (Session T3.4)
Panel Chair: Charles Steinfield, Michigan State University
Panelists: Peter Allen, American Express
Nicholas Costello, European Commission, Telecommunications Directorate
Alain Vallee, Directorate for General Regulation, Ministry of Posts, Telecommunication, and Space

Panel 14: Research Directions in Computer-Aided Software Engineering (CASE) (Session T4.2)
Panel Chair: Kalle Lyytinen, University of Jyväskylä
Panelists: François Bodart, University of Namur
Sue Conger, City University of New York
Wanda Orlikowski, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Richard J. Welke, Erasmus University Rotterdam

Panel 15: Teaching by the Case Method: Secrets of the Trade (Session W1.3)
Panel Chair: Brandt Allen, University of Virginia
Panelists: James Cash, Harvard University
Michael Oliff, IMD School of Business

Panel 16: Business Applications of Neural Networks: Problems and Opportunities (Session W2.3)
Panel Chair: Shimon Schocken, New York University
Panelists: John Hertz, Nordita and Neurotech
Ludwik J. Liszka, Swedish Institute of Space Physics
Douglas L. Reilly, Nestor Inc.
Leo Vercauteren, State University of Ghent
