PROCEEDINGS

SPE/IADC
Drilling Conference

4–6 March 1997
Amsterdam

Sponsored by Society of Petroleum Engineers Inc./International Association of Drilling Contractors
CONTENTS

SPE/IADC 36994  Development, Testing, and Field Case Histories of Multilateral Well Completion Systems .......................................................... 11
J.R. Longbottom, Dana Dale, Kevin Waddell, and Scott Bruha, Halliburton Energy Services, and John Roberts, Weatherford Enterra

SPE/IADC 37572  Delivering Step Change in Performance From Well Construction Teams .... 27
J.L. Thorogood, BP Exploration Operating Co.

SPE/IADC 37573  Extended Reach Drilling: Managing Networking, Guidelines, and Lessons Learned ................................................................. 37

SPE/IADC 37576  Armada Development: Case History of Extended Reach Pre-Drilling From a Semi-Submersible in the Central North Sea ...................... 45
B.G. Teggart, C.L. Dunne, and R.D. Wilkinson, British Gas E&P Ltd.

SPE/IADC 37577  Cost Effective Horizontal Drilling in the Troll Field Through Use of State-of-the-Art Technology and Optimal Operations .......................... 57
N. Henriksen and D. Storegjerde, Norsk Hydro A/S

SPE/IADC 37578  New Nozzle Hydraulics Increase ROP for PDC and Rock Bits .................. 69

SPE/IADC 37579  Ultra-High Pressure Jet Assist of Mechanical Drilling .......................... 79

SPE/IADC 37580  Using New Computational Fluid Dynamics Techniques to Improve PDC Bit Performance .......................................................... 91
G.R. Watson, Hycalog; N.A. Barton, British Gas Research; and G.K. Hargrove, Loughborough U.

SPE/IADC 37581  Beyond Gauge Retention: Diamond Chisel Inserts Provide Further Performance Benefits on Roller Cone Bits ................................. 107
M.J. Doig, Smith Intl. Inc.; N. Bonnett, Mobil North Sea; and D.G. Cardno, BHP

SPE/IADC 37582  Improved Roller Cone Bit Selection Through the Use of an Attribute Based Bit Classification System .................................................. 117

SPE/IADC 37583  A Practical Method for Modeling Bit Performance Using Mud Logging Data .......................................................... 127
Hong Xu, Tetsuro Tochikawa, and Takashi Hatakeyama, Japan National Oil Corp.

Paul Tranter, Michel Legrand, Capella Festa, and Andy Grieve, Sedco Forex, and Alan Spackman and Dennis Krahn, IADC

SPE/IADC 37586  Training Well Engineers in the Outsourced Services Era .......................... 149
C. Stuart and G.D. Baley

SPE/IADC 37587  Pressure While Drilling Data Improves Reservoir Drilling Performance ........ 159
C.D. Ward, Sperry-Sun Drilling Services, and E. Andreassen, Statoil as

SPE/IADC 37589  Pressure Integrity Test Interpretation .................................................. 169
D.P. Postler, Exxon Co. Intl.

SPE/IADC 37590  A Fishing Operations Expert System .................................................. 185
A.L. D’Almeida, I.M. Silva, and J.S. Ramos

SPE/IADC 37593  High Penetration Rates: Hazards and Well Control—A Case Study ........... 189
I.A. Frigaard and N.L. Humphries, Schlumberger Cambridge Research, and I.M. Rezmer-Cooper and J.P. James, Anadrill
Drilling Index—A New Approach to Bit Performance Evaluation 199
V.P. Perrin, Chevron; Graham Mensa-Wilmot, GeoDiamond; and W.L. Alexander, Smith Tool

Active Heave: The Benefits to Operations as Seen in the North Sea 207
Philip Bennett, Sedco Forex, Schlumberger

Stratigraphy Drilling in Deep Water with Aluminum Drill Pipes Application 219
M.Y. Gelfgat and A.M. Podrazhansky, Aquatic Co., and J. Geise and G. Paff, Fugro Engineers B.V.

Beyond 8 km Departure Wells: The Necessary Rig & Equipment 225
J.H. Gammage, Deutag Drilling; S. Modi, BP Exploration; and G.W. Klop, Deutag Drilling

Pro-Star 2000: Investing in State-of-the-Art Drilling Technology in Order to Reduce the Overall Well Cost Without Compromising on Quality and HSE Issues 233
E. Boering and D. Swart, Deutag Nederland B.V., and T.F. Young, Deutsche Tiefbohr A.G.

A New Approach to Mechanized Tubular Handling and Running as a Safe and Cost Effective Alternative 239
Holger Kinzel and Jörg Lorenz, Weatherford Oil Tool GmbH

Improving HPHT Stability of Water Based Drilling Fluids 249

A New Environmentally Safe High-Temperature, Water-Base Drilling Fluid System 263
Carl Thaemlitz, Arvind Patel, George Coffin, and Lee Conn, M-I Drilling Fluids LLC

Drilling Through Mature Production Zones 269
N.P. Kenney, SBM Drilling Fluids, and Joseph Kilchrist, Oil & Gas Project Management

The Economical and Technical Advantages of Low Head Drilling of Depleted Reservoirs With Aerated Mud: A Case History Offshore Angola 277
C. Zurdo, D. Gazaniol, and D. Grepinet, Elf Aquitaine Production; J. Ybert, Elf Exploration Angola; and R. Rodrigano, Air Drilling Services

Field Applications of ERD Hole Cleaning Modeling 287
Terry Hemphill and Tom Pogue, Baroid Drilling Fluids AS

The Use of Silicate-WBM Facilitates Successful Primary Cementation Operations on the BHP Petroleum Liverpool Bay Development 301
D.G. Cardno, BHP Petroleum Ltd.; D. Ripley, BW Mud Ltd.; and J.W. Crawford, MGA Consultancy Services Ltd.

Optimizing Hole Cleaning by Application of a Pressure While Drilling Tool 313
M.D.J. Easton, Sperry Sun Drilling Services; E.M. Diggins, Shell UK E&P Ltd.; and J. Nichols and G.J. Riley, KCA Drilling Ltd.

The Evolution of Profitable Development Drilling in Prudhoe Bay: A Case of Adapting to Survive 323
M.J. Stanley, BP Exploration (Alaska) Inc., and D.S. Stoltz, Arco Alaska Inc.

Case History: Single-String Horizontal Well Design for Shallow, Unconsolidated Sand 333
C. Duginski and D.G. Ritter, Mobil Oil

Wellbore Design With Reduced Clearance Between Casing Strings 341
J.W. Barker

New Well Architectures Increase Gas Recovery and Reduce Drilling Costs 351
M.J. Horn and D.P. Plathey, Total E&P Thailand
