POLYOLEFINS X
INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

February 23 - 26, 1997
Houston, Texas

JOINTLY SPONSORED BY:
SOUTH TEXAS SECTION
and
THERMOPLASTIC MATERIALS & FOAMS DIVISION
TABLE OF CONTENTS

PLENARY SESSION: TRENDS

THE RENAISSANCE IN POLYOLEFIN MANUFACTURING TECHNOLOGY .......................... 1
Kenneth B. Sinclair, STA Research

THE PRESENT AND FUTURE OF METALLOCENE TECHNOLOGY IN POLYOLEFINS & ELASTOMERS ............... 13
G. L. McPike, Exxpol Venture

DESIGN OF ELASTOMERS THROUGH THE USE OF MOLECULAR ARCHITECTURE ...................... 15
Paul R. Graves, Gerald M. Lancaster,
DuPont Dow Elastomers, L.L.C.

METALLOCENE CAPABILITIES DRIVE SUCCESS OF INNOVATIVE PACKAGING MANUFACTURER ................... 25
David C. Fischer, Cypress-Cryovac

IMPACT OF METALLOCENE BASED POLYPROPYLENE ON EXISTING POLYPROPYLENE TECHNOLOGIES AND MARKETS ................................................................. 31
Dr. Edwar S. Shamshoun, Fina Technical Center, LaPorte
Dr. Joe Schardl, Fina, Dallas Headquarters

SESSION II: POLYMERS AND CATALYSTS

MIXED METALLOCENES FOR DESIGNER POLYMERS ............................................. 33
Dr. A.N. Speca, Dr. J. J. McAlpin,
Exxon Chemical

ALUMINOXANE COCATALYSTS ................................................................. 49
Gregory M. Smith, Akzo Nobel CENTRAL RESEARCH
Dennis M. Malpass, Akzo Nobel CHEMICALS, INC.

Stacey N. Bernstein, P. Daniel Jones, Daniel J. Monfiston,
Jonathan Rogers, Biing-Ming Su, Stanley W. Palmaka,
Charles F. Tirendi, Azko Nobel CENTRAL RESEARCH

Clark C. Crapo, Dennis L. Deavenport, James T. Hodges
Ryan H. Ngo, Curtis W. Post, Constance S. Rabbitt, Akzo Nobel CHEMICALS, INC.
HIGH-MOLECULAR-WEIGHT ATACTIC POLYPROPYLENE FROM METALLOECNE CATALYSTS ........................................ 71
  Luigi Resconi, Fabrizio Piemontesi and Robert Jones,
  Montell Polyolefins

UNIPOL GAS PHASE COPOLYMERIZATION WITH SSC METALLOECNE TECHNOLOGY ........................................ 87
  Frederick J. Karol, Union Carbide Corporation

NEW POLYETHYLENE FOR TARGETED PERFORMANCE BASED APPLICATIONS ...................................................... 109
  Pradeep Jain, Lonnie G. Hazlitt and Jackie A. deGroot,
  Dow Chemical Company

ECONOMIC FACTORS IN THE PRODUCTION OF METALLOECNE AND PERFLUORINATED BORON COCATALYSTS .......................... 119
  Jeffrey M. Sullivan, PhD, Boulder Scientific Company

SESSION III: FORMULATING WITH ADDITIVES, FILLERS AND MODIFIERS

THE APPLICATION OF FLUOROPOLYMER BASED PROCESSING AIDS IN POLYPROPYLENE AND THERMOPLASTIC RUBBER .................................................. 133
  Stephen E. Amos, Dyneon LLC

HOW TO INCREASE PERFORMANCE PROPERTIES OF MICA-REINFORCED POLYOLEFIN COMPOSITES .......................... 145
  Levy A. Canova, Franklin Industrial Minerals,
  KMG Division

RECENT ADVANCES IN TALC AS A MODIFIER FOR POLYOLEFINS ................................................................. 173
  Joseph A. Radosta, Specialty Minerals, Inc.

POLYPROPYLENE MODIFICATION WITH ELASTOMERIC ETHYLENE/OCTENE COPOLYMERS PRODUCED BY SINGLE SITE CONSTRAINED GEOMETRY CATALYST .................. 185
  J. A. Dibbern and M.K. Laughner,
  Dupont Dow Elastomers, L. L. C.
  H. C. Silvis, The Dow Chemical Company
STABILIZATION OF POLYOLEFINS BY PHOTOREACTIVE LIGHT STABILIZERS ............................................. 207
Gilbert Ligner and Ján Malík, CLARIANT Hunique, S.A.

INTERACTIONS OF HINDERED AMINE STABILIZERS - IN ACIDIC AND ALKALINE ENVIRONMENTS .............. 217
K. Keck Antoine, D. Scharf,
Specialty Chemicals Group, BU Additives, Hoechst Celanese Corp.
H. Koch, R &D Department, BU Additives, Hoechst AG

SESSION IV: POST REACTION PROCESSING

PLASTOMER-POLYPROPYLENE BLEND MIXOLOGY ............... 227
Thomas C. Yu, Exxon Chemical Company

AN EXPERIMENTAL AND NUMERICAL INVESTIGATION OF WATERFLOW IN AN UNDERWATER PELLETIZER (UG400) ...... 241
Arash Kiani, Paul Anderson
Werner & Pfleiderer Corporation
Juergen Bartl, Rainer Sauter
Werner & Pfleiderer GmbH

COMBINING CONTINUOUS MIXER AND TWIN SCREW EXTRUDER TECHNOLOGIES INTO A TWIN SCREW, AXIAL DISCHARGE COMPOUNDER ............................................................... 251
Stefano Canegallo, POMINI SpA
Ken Nekola, POMINI, Inc.

COMPUTER AIDED REMOTE DIAGNOSTICS OF POLYMER PROCESSING MACHINERY .................................................. 261
Dr. S. R. Patel, Farrel Corporation

IMPROVEMENT OF THE CONTINUOUS MIXER FOR COMPOUNDING POLYOLEFIN WITH INORGANIC FILLER .............. 275
Y. Kuroda, K. Inoue, R. Minato and K. Takahashi,
Kobe Steel, LTD.

OPTIMIZING PNEUMATIC CONVEYING OF POLYOLEFINS ............. 293
Hamid Noorani, Buhler, Inc.
SESSION V: MOLDING AND EXTRUSION APPLICATION

USING SINGLE-SITE CONSTRAINED GEOMETRY CATALYST TECHNOLOGY TO ENHANCE HDPE’S FOR INJECTION MOLDING ... 303
Brian J. Faulkner and Alan R. Whetten,
The Dow Chemical Co.

DEVELOPING APPLICATIONS WITH THE NEWEST CLARIFIED POLYPROPYLENES ................................................. 317
Reed Walker, Milliken Chemical

TRADITIONAL COLORING IN EXTRUSION PROCESS VS.
COLOR CHANGES IN 120 SECONDS ................................. 331
Loren Albrecht, Bemis Manufacturing Company

INFLUENCE OF SECONDARY ANTI-OXIDANTS ON PROCESSING STABILITY (BLACK SPECKS) OF INJECTION MOLDING POLYETHYLENE RESINS .................................................. 341
T. Tikuisis, S. K. Goyal and L. Douglas,
NOVA Chemicals Ltd.

PROCESSING OF POLYOLEFIN FOAMS WITH ALTERNATIVE BLOWING AGENTS .................................................. 359
Martin H. Mack and Joachim Meyke
Berstorff Corporation

ADVANCED EXTRACTION RESISTANT LONG-TERM STABILIZERS FOR POLYOLEFIN PIPES ........................................ 371
Th. Schmutz, E. Kramer and H. Zweifel, Ciba-Geigy, Ltd.
G. Dorner, Institute of Materials Science and Testing of Plastics

WETTABLE AND DYEABLE POLYOLEFIN, TECHNOLOGY & APPLICATIONS ..................................................... 385
Dr. Paresh J. Sheth, Lyondell Polymers

SESSION VI: FILM AND FIBER APPLICATIONS

DRAW STRESS CHARACTERIZATION OF POLYPROPYLENE FOR IMPROVED BIAXIAL FILM PROCESSABILITY .................. 397
William W. Cox and Edward K. Bullock,
Applied Extrusion Technologies, Inc.
POTENTIAL FILM APPLICATIONS OF METALLOCENE-BASED PROPYLENE POLYMERS FROM EXXPOL CATALYSIS .......................... 417
Aspy K. Mehta, Michael C. Chen, and James J. McAlpin,
Exxon Chemical Company

STABILIZATION OF AGRICULTURAL FILMS: PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE .................................................. 439
M. Guo, D. Horsey, Ciba-Geigy Corp., Ciba Additives
N. Lelli, Ciba-Geigy Ltd.
M. Bonora, Ciba S.C.

A PROCESSING COMPARISON OF POP AND EPE POLYMERS IN BLOWN FILM .................................................. 453
Thomas I. Butler, Mark A. Spalding, Andreas Meyer,
The Dow Chemical Company

RHEOLOGY/MORPHOLOGY/PERFORMANCE RELATIONSHIPS FOR PECLABLE FILMS BASED ON PB/PE BLENDS .................. 469
Johan De Clippeleir, Shell Chemicals, Europe
Charles C. Hwo, Shell Chemical Company
Mark L. Kasakevich, Shell Chemical Co., USA

SESSION VII: PROCESS CONTROL AND MODELING

NEURAL NETWORK MODELING AND CONTROL OF POLYPROPYLENE PROCESS ........................................ 487
Esdras Demoro, Celso Axelrud, OPP Petroquimica S.A.
Doug Johnson, Greg Martin, Pavilion Technologies

DYNAMIC SIMULATORS FOR TRAINING IN THE PLASTICS INDUSTRY .................................................. 501
Jennifer J. Cade, Honeywell Hi-Spec Solutions

INTRINSICALLY SAFE SUPERVISORY CONTROL OF NON-LINEAR MODEL-PREDICTIVE CONTROLLERS .................. 517
Douglas G. Harrell, Montell Polyolefins

ON-LINE RHEOLOGY CONCEPTS TO OPTIMIZE THE MONITORING OF MOLECULAR STRUCTURE OF POLYOLEFIN MELTS UNDER REAL-TIME CONDITIONS .................. 537
A. Goettfert; Goettfert

THE USE OF BINARY DECISION MAKING AND AN EARLY WARNING ALERT IN TRACKING CUSTOMER COMPLAINTS ............. 547
Helen Wolcott Horton, Consumer Communications, Inc.
FT-IR PROCESS ANALYTICAL INSTRUMENTATION OF METALLOCENE POLYETHYLENE UNITS FROM FEED TO PRODUCT ............................................................... 553
Dave Marrow, Analect Instruments, Inc.

SESSION VIII: ADDITIVES FOR STABILIZATION

A MAJOR BREAKTHROUGH IN POLYMER STABILIZATION .......... 555
C. Krohnke, Ciba-Geigy AG, Additives Division

THE EFFECT OF NUCLEATION ON GLYCEROL ESTER ANTISTAT PERFORMANCE .................................................. 571
Dale Dieckmann, Patco Polymer Additives Division

THE PERFORMANCE OF PRIMARY AND SECONDARY ANTIOXIDANTS IN POLYOLEFINs PRODUCED WITH METALLOCENE CATALYSTS ................................. 585
G. L. Klende, R. A. Hendriks, J. Semen, K. P. Bechnel,
Albemarle Corporation

POLYSILOXANES: A NEXT GENERATION PLATFORM FOR POLYMER STABILIZERS .................................................. 599
Robert L. Gray and Robert E. Lee,
Great Lakes Chemical Corporation
Carlo Neri, Great Lakes Chemical Italia

CHARACTERIZING THE PERFORMANCE OF PROCESSING STABILIZERS IN POLYPROPYLENE ................................. 615
Pamela Gardner, Carloss Gray, Larry Simmons,
GE Specialty Chemicals, Inc.

ANALYSIS OF SEVERAL PHOSPHITE STABILIZERS USED IN POLYOLEFINs .................................................. 627
Dr. Michael R. Jakupca, Dr. Don R. Stevenson, Dr. Daryl L. Stein,
Dover Chemical Corporation

SESSION IX: REGULATORY AND ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES

NEW DEVELOPMENTS FOR ALTERNATIVE DAILY COVER FOR MUNICIPAL LANDFILLS PER SUBTITLE D OF THE FEDERAL REGULATIONS ........................................ 653
Rod A. Garcia, EPI Environmental Products, Inc.
U. S. REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS FOR POLYOLEFIN RESINS USED IN FOOD PACKAGING: PAST PRESENT AND FUTURE .......... 673
   L. C. Burgert, The Dow Chemical Company

NAFTA: AN OVERVIEW ......................................................... 683
   Mike Brobst, Michael A. Curl, Kim M. Friloux, Bruce Moorman, and Terrance Wetter,
   Witco Corporation, Oleochemicals/Surfactants B Group

ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS: AN INTRODUCTION TO ISO 14000 .......................................................... 691
   Paula A. Riley, Witco Corporation, Polymers Additives Group

INTERNATIONAL REGULATIONS FOR POLYMERS AND OTHER INDUSTRIAL CHEMICALS ........................................ 699
   N. Bhushan Mandava, Mandava Associates

REGULATORY POTPOURRI ......................................................... 701
   Richard T. LeNoir, Montell USA Inc.
