PROGRAM AND TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface......................................................... viii

Thursday, April 24

9:45-10:15 Opening Session ...Heritage II Room

10:15-10:45 Refreshment Break

10:45-12:15 Module Session A

I. THE COMPUTER, THE FUTURE, AND EDUCATION
   ...Heritage II Room

   Personal Microcomputing for the University Researcher
   by L. Floyd Lewis, III & Rammohan Ragade........... 151

   Computers and Simulation in the Education Engineers
   by William M. Bussell................................. 25

   Methods of Teaching Computing in Mathematical Education by G. Grinstein........................................ 49

II. THE DEVELOPING WORLD AND THE NEW WORLD ECONOMIC ORDER
   ...University Room

   The New World Economic Order: An Overview
   by A. G. Kefalas................................. 88

   Methodological Considerations for Conflict Resolution Involving North-South Relations and a NWEO
   by Scott C. Iverson................................. 81

III. COMMUNITY, STATE, AND REGIONAL PLANNING
    ...Arlington Room

   The Expanding Role of Agriculture in Economic Development
   by Bill Miller................................. 161
10:45-12:15 Module Session A (continued)

A State-Level Automated Management Information System to Improve Grantsmanship Capabilities
by Reynolds Ferrante............................... 38

Total (Economic and Environmental) Benefit-Cost Analysis of Our Economic Development Event
by Ty Tidrick & A. G. Kefalas....................... 297

IV. FORECASTING CONCEPTS, PROCESSES, METHODS
...Plaza Room

Exploratory Session: What technological developments do we forecast in our areas of expertise?
Discussion of the relationships between the forecasts.

12:15- 1:30 LUNCH
Special Meetings---to be announced

1:30- 3:00 Module Session B

I. THE COMPUTER, THE FUTURE, AND EDUCATION
...Heritage II Room

Word Processing Applications
by Sid Turner, Lanier

New Processing and Memory Developments
by Peter Rouse, Texas Instruments

Discussion of Presentations

II. THE DEVELOPING WORLD AND THE NEW WORLD ECONOMIC ORDER
...University Room

Macro Level Systems and Their Influence Upon Society
by Konrad E Sadek & A. Tomeski.................... 273

III. COMMUNITY, STATE, AND REGIONAL PLANNING
...Arlington Room

Special Session

Report on Planning for Greater Birmingham
by Operation New Birmingham and Department of Community Affairs
1:30- 3:00 Module Session B (continued)

IV. FORECASTING CONCEPTS, PROCESSES, METHODS
...Plaza Room

Concepts and Processes of Forecasting by Bruce Peseau................................. 213

3:00- 3:30 REFRESHMENT BREAK

3:30- 5:00 Module Session C

3:30- 5:00 Module Session C

I. THE COMPUTER, THE FUTURE, AND EDUCATION
...Heritage II Room

Instructional Applications of Microcomputers
by Ronald Huffstetter & Charles Cashion, Bell and Howell (Apple)

Administrative Applications
by Judy Seaton, IBM

Discussion of Presentations

II. THE DEVELOPING WORLD AND THE NEW WORLD
ECONOMIC ORDER
...University Room

The Philosophy of "Value Transfer" Between Developed and Developing Nations: An Insuperable Ethical Dilemma?
by Monte Hillard Koppel.......................... 95

III. COMMUNITY, STATE, AND REGIONAL PLANNING
...Arlington Room

Symposium: A Human-Oriented Systems Approach to Community Development: As Applied to Development in Latin America

Paper 1: Shangri-La in the Land of Cybernetica by William C. Moore.............................. 170

Paper 2: The Biological Analogy for the Development of Communities
by Arnold Mysoior................................ 176

Paper 3: Information Processing Analogs in the Development of Communities by Michael Murtha............................... 182

Paper 4: Metabolic Elements in the Development of Communities/Cities
by Gary Sycalik................................. 190
3:30- 5:00 Module Session C (continued)

IV. FORECASTING CONCEPTS, PROCESSES, METHODS

...Plaza Room

A Methodology for Technology Forecasting, Planning, and Assessment
by James R. Simms..........................

A Format and Procedure Using Information Processing for Forecasting by Robert E. Hendricks....................

Discussion, Integration, and Consensual Validation of Papers Presented

6:00- 8:00 BANQUET

...Heritage II Room

Speech: The New World Economic Order
Ervin Laszlo
United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR)

Friday, April 25

9:00- 9:30 General Session

...Centennial Room

9:30-12:00 Module Session D

(Refreshment Break at Chairperson's Option)

I. THE COMPUTER, THE FUTURE, AND EDUCATION

...Centennial I Room

MIS and Legal Issues
by John M. Parsa.......................... 294

Future Consumer Welfare: Ethical Issues in the Mini/Micro Computer Industry
by J. Donald Weinrauch & Gary C. Pickett...... 312

Computers and State Government--A Futuristic Dimension
by John H. Parsa & John Remko................ 258

A Non-Technical Approach Towards Producing Computer Literates
by Robert R. Riser..........................

A Computerized Reading Center
by David M. Brown.........................
9:30-12:00 Module Session D (Continued)

Where are We Now; Where Can We Go?
by Eric T. Lane................................. 147

The Computer As An Educational Tool
by Maurice S. Newman.......................... 205

Interface Magnification -- A Plan for Systems Development Education
by John Remko................................. 257

II. THE DEVELOPING WORLD AND THE NEW WORLD
ECONOMIC ORDER

...Centennial II Room

A Social Systems Model for Fertility Management in Bangladesh
by J. H. Teel, R. R. Ragade, and R. A. Bell....

The Need for a New Perspective in Worldwide Planning
by R. W. Hull................................. 75

Bioresources for Alternative Developments
by Ingemar Falkenberg........................

III. COMMUNITY, STATE, AND REGIONAL PLANNING

...Arlington Room

Interfacing of Variegated Geographic Units in Terms of Political, Economic, and Social Imperatives by Fremont A. Shull............................ 280

A Tax Revenue and Need Projection Model for the State Government of Alabama by John Hayman............................... 318

Designing a Comprehensive Policy Statement for State Development Management by Kozmas Balkus............................... 1

Goal Programming: A Decision Making Technique to Link Public Budgeting to Environmental Quality
by Charles W. Steger..........................

Applying Marketing Techniques to Community, Regional, and State Planning by David W. Stewart............................ 289
9:30-12:00 Module Session D (Continued)

IV. FORECASTING CONCEPTS, PROCESSES, METHODS
...Plaza Room

Assessing Perceptions of Risks and Benefits of Technology in Community Development
by Joseph Petrosko, John Dillon, & Rammohan Ragade............................. 233

Policy Simulation: An Alternative Approach to Assess the Consequences of Policy and Policy Mix
by Peter Chang.................................................................

A Forecasting Model for Optimizing the Race/Sex Mix of Faculty in a State University System
by Pacharee Kraprayoon & Frank Banghart......... 107

Forecasting Deficit Cycles of the Municipal Government by Semoon Chang.............................................................. 31

Discussion of Papers

12:00- 1:30 LUNCH
Special Meetings---to be announced

1:30- 3:00 Module Session E

I. THE COMPUTER, THE FUTURE, AND EDUCATION
...Centennial I Room

Small Group Discussion Sessions; Group Goals and Membership Assignments to be Announced
--Terry Countermine, Chair

II. THE DEVELOPING WORLD AND THE NEW WORLD ECONOMIC ORDER
...Centennial II Room

EVNSCAN: What's It All About?
by A. G. Kefalas......................................................... 92

Corporate Environmental Scanning Systems: A Status Report
by Kenneth E. Newgren.................................................. 197

III. COMMUNITY, STATE, AND REGIONAL PLANNING
...Arlington Room

Health, Decrease, Purpose, Multifinality, and Equifinality by Patricia M. Trussell.................................................. 302
1:30- 3:00 Module Session E (Continued)

Development Process for Rural Communities
by Landa L. Trentham & Nancy Kykendall ............ 333

Survival of the Factors Attracting Merchants in Downtown of Small Georgia Cities
by Diane Weinberg, Andrew Slack, &
A. G. Kefalas .............................................. 307

Community, State, and Regional Planning in Vocational Education: Why It Isn't Working by Ralph Ressler ........................................... 250

IV. FORECASTING CONCEPTS, PROCESSES, METHODS

...Plaza Room

Critique, Integration, and Consensual Validation of the Module

3:00- 3:30 REFRESHMENT BREAK

3:30- 4:00 Final General Session
...Centennial Room

Conference Summary and Future Plans

4:00 ADJOURN