Proceedings of the Fifth International Conference on
Computer Capacity Management

Sponsored by:
Institute for Software Engineering

April 18-21, 1983
New Orleans, Louisiana

Editor
Carol B. Kaplan
CONTENTS

STRATEGIC PLANNING

Strategic Planning for Information Services .............................................. 1
Paul R. Robichaux, Boole & Babbage

The Role of Electronic Data Processing (EDP) in Corporate Strategic Planning .......... 3
William W. Waggoner, William W. Waggoner & Associates

Coping with the Explosive DP Growth .................................................. 7
George J. Febish, Febish Associates, Inc.

Putting Together and Selling a Long-Range Plan ...................................... 15
Mridu Sekhar, University of Chicago Medical Center

PRESENTATION OF THE GUIDE & SHARE WHITE PAPERS ON CAPACITY MANAGEMENT

Future Directions for Performance Management (GUIDE) ................................ 22
Dottie L. Cunningham, Celanese Corporation; David R. Vincent, Institute for Software Engineering

J. William Mullen, Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SESSION

Computer Systems Analysis ................................................................. 54
Dr. Kishor S. Trivedi, Duke University

DECISION SUPPORT SYSTEMS

A Decision Support System for the MIS Executive .................................... 56
Dr. Leilani E. Allen, Institute for Software Engineering

IRP--Information Resource Planning and Control: Decision Support Systems for Data Processing ...................................................... 64
James S. Grant, Boole & Babbage

Structure and Design Considerations for a Generalized Performance Analysis and Capacity Planning Tool ...................................................... 68
S. L. Biardo, GATX; Dr. A. K. von Mayrhauser, Illinois Institute of Technology

SERVICE MANAGEMENT

Development of Performance Evaluation Tools: A Manager's Viewpoint ............ 84
Shirley A. Jeane, Burroughs Corporation

Service Level Agreements: A Management Tool for Technical Staff ................ 90
Dr. Christine N. Witzel, Institute for Software Engineering

Service Management ............................................................................. 97
William R. Wike, Arthur Andersen & Co.

EDP COST ISSUES

Cost Control of Distributed Systems: Myth or Methodology .......................... 107
Carl Carchia, Computer Systems Research, Inc.

A Standardized Costing Approach for Information Systems .......................... 111
David R. Vincent, Institute for Software Engineering

-111-
CONTENTS

Planning and Control of DP Cost ................................................................. 113
Catherine H. Liu, Boole & Babbage

BUSINESS ISSUES

Staffing and Organizing the Capacity Management Function .......................... 124
C. W. Ryan, On-Line Software International

Using the Capacity Planning Process to Support Business Decisions ............... 126
R. Tom McLellan, Digital Equipment Corporation

A Service Approach ..................................................................................... 129
J. William Mullen, Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co.

Service Level Reporting Shows the Need for Better Availability ..................... 130
Flemming Jensen, Datacentralen

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Fighting for the User .................................................................................. 140
Dr. Ben Shneiderman, University of Maryland

SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT ENGINEERING

V & V's Role in a Computer System's Life Cycle ........................................... 143
Jeanne H. Balsam and H. Patrick Elam, Georgia Institute of Technology

Functional Design of On-Line Applications for Performance ......................... 147
Prasad P. V. Girl, First and Merchants National Bank

Application Programming: A New Direction ............................................... 164
Gerald Cooklin, Florida State University

CAPACITY PLANNING & MODELING

Generalized Modeling of Testing and Reconfigurability: System Activities for Improved Performances ................................................................. 169
Fabrizio Lombardi and Steve Ratheal, Texas Tech University

Performance Evaluation by a Flexible, Hierarchical Modeling and Measurement Concept .................................................................................. 179
Axel H. Lehmann, University of Karlsruhe

How Not to Do Capacity Planning ............................................................... 197
Alan J. Knight, Royal Bank of Scotland

CAPACITY MANAGEMENT SUCCESS STORIES

What Happens If...? An Interactive Approach to Capacity Presentations ........... 209
Graham E. Bell, Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Kansas

Capacity Management at Lincoln National Life During 1981-82 ....................... 221
William R. Sherman, Lincoln National Life Insurance Company

Workload Analysis and Forecasting: A Case Study at BKB Corporation ................ 224
Vince Neidzielski and W. S. Cecchi, Control Data Corporation

From Data Base to Knowledge Base: Artificial Intelligence with an IBM Data Dictionary .................................................. 350
Dr. Paltin Sturdza, The Medical College of Pennsylvania

Capacity Management Study for the Metric Data Processing System .................................................. 360
Dr. Donald J. Malone and Gary L. Reed, Computer Sciences Corporation

NETWORK CAPACITY ANALYSIS

Communication Network Capacity Analysis Using Modeling & Simulation Approaches .................. 373
T. L. Lo and Jack Peng, McDonnell Douglas Automation Company

Equipment Inventory Management at the Swedish State Power Board .................................................. 381
B. Walters, Swedish State Power Board

Telematics in the Business Enterprises of the 80's: Planning, Design, Implementation, and Management of the New Environment .................................................. 385
Lenilson Naveira e Silva, IBM do Brasil

Capacity Planning for Page and Swap Configurations .................................................. 392
Thomas Beretvas, IBM Information Systems and Technology Group

CAPACITY MANAGEMENT AND DDP

A Performance Management Information System for Distributed Computer Systems .................. 407
John Story, Texas Instruments, Inc.

Network Performance/Design and Its Effect on Computer Capacity .................................................. 413
Jeanne Senatore, Racal-Milgo Incorporated

CAPACITY MANAGEMENT DIRECTIONS

Capacity Management and Planning in the 80's: A Management Perspective .................. 421
J. William Mullen, Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co.

Managing Information for Effective Use: A Case Study .................................................. 426
Richard H. Frobose, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory

GETTING STARTED IN CAPACITY MANAGEMENT

The Steps toward Getting Started in Capacity Management .................................................. 430
Norman R. Thorn, Boole & Babbage

Software Physics Update .................................................. 434
Dr. Ann R. T. Maeda, Institute for Software Engineering

Key Ingredients for Successful Capacity Management .................................................. 440
Hans Dithmar, Institute for Software Engineering/UK

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SESSION

DASD Response Time Analysis .................................................. 445
Irwin F. Kraus, Amdahl Corporation

WORKLOAD ANALYSIS

Workload Classification Problems .................................................. 454
Saverio Merlo, Boole & Babbage

The Importance of Workload Definition in Capacity Planning and Performance .................................................. 462
Dr. Elizabeth H. Yen, Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc.
