AI Meets Business Rules and Process Management

Papers from the AAAI Spring Symposium

Knut Hinkelmann, Chair

Technical Report SS-08-01

AAAII Press
Menlo Park, California
Contents

Semantic Description of Distributed Business Processes / 1
Sudhir Agarwal, Sebastian Rudolph, and Andreas Abecker

Rules for Making Sense of Events: Design Issues for High-Level Event Query and Reasoning Languages (Position Paper) / 12
François Bry and Michael Eckert

Towards a Semantic Framework for Business Activity Monitoring and Management / 17
Claire Costello and Owen Molloy

E-Government for Distributed Autonomous Administrations / 28
Daniela Feldkamp, Wolf Siberski, Barbara Thönnissen, and Holger Wache

Making BPEL Flexible / 39
Daniela Feldkamp and Nishant Singh

Towards a Framework for Policy-Oriented Enterprise Management / 50
Matthias Kaiser and Jens Lemche

Business Processes and Rules: An eGovernment Case-Study / 54
Dimitris Karagiannis, Wilfrid Utz, Robert Woitsch, and Andrea Leutgeb

A Framework for Temporal Representation and Reasoning in Business Intelligence Applications / 59
Hans-Ulrich Krieger, Bernd Kiefer, and Thierry Declerck

Semantic Business Process Modeling - Benefits and Capability / 71
Florian Lautenbacher, Bernhard Bauer, and Christian Seitz

SBVR Use Cases / 77
Mark H. Linehan

Reasoning about Provenance with OWL and SWRL Rules / 87
Robert E. McGrath and Joe Futrelle

Developing a Web-Based Application using OWL and SWRL / 93
Martin J. O'Connor, Ravi Shankar, Csongor Nyulas, Samson Tu, and Amar Das

Uwe V. Riss, Ingo Weber, and Olaf Grebner

A Framework for Unifying Problem-Solving Knowledge and Workflow Modeling / 105
Juan C. Vidal, Manuel Lama, and Alberto Bugarín
Including Semantics and Probabilistic Uncertainty in Business Rules Using Fuzzy Modeling and Dempster-Shafer Theory / 111

Ronald R. Yager

Business Rules and Decision Processes in Mediated Business Coordination / 117

Zheng Zhao, Virginia Dignum, and Frank Dignum