SKETCHING INTERIORS
Preface

Acknowledgments

Chapter 1: Getting Started

The Best Way to Start
Getting Inspiration
When and Where to Draw
Sketching and Perception
The Essential Items
Sketch Papers
Sketchbook
Pencils
Colored Pencils
Eraser
Kneaded Eraser
Pencil Sharpener
Ink Pens / Sharpies
Markers
Marker Papers
Drawing with Confidence: The Very First Stroke
Exercise 1.1: Exploring Your Toolbox
Your Brain: Left Side and Right Side
Seeing and Perceiving Objects
Upside-Down Drawing: Shifting to R-Mode
Exercise 1.2: Upside-Down Drawing
Exercise 1.3: Upside-Down Drawing (Portrait Photos)
Exercise 1.4: Upside-Down Drawing (Interior Space Photos)
Sketching Interiors
From Freehand Sketching to Digital Drawing
Summary
Key Terms
Additional Exercises
References
Chapter 6: Texture

Presenting Texture with a Pencil

Texture Demonstration #1—Drawing Windows from Both Exterior and Interior Views
Texture Demonstration #2—Drawing Masonry with a Pencil
Texture Demonstration #3—Drawing Roof and Interior Ceilings with a Pencil
Texture Demonstration #4—Drawing Shadow with a Pencil
Texture Demonstration #5—Drawing Openings with a Pencil

Exercise 6.1: Exploring Windows and Masonry
Exercise 6.2: Interior Perspective—Exploring Shadows and Openings

Presenting Texture with Ink

Texture Demonstration #6—Various Pen Strokes
Texture Demonstration #7—Drawing Landscaping with Ink (Sharpie)
Texture Demonstration #8—Drawing Shadows and Openings with Ink (Sharpie)

Exercise 6.3: Exploring Openings—Shadows and Landscaping with Both Pencil and Ink (Sharpie)

Tips and Hints
Summary
Key Terms
Additional Exercises

Chapter 7: Presenting Materials with Markers

Introduction of Markers

Demonstration #1—Getting Familiar with Markers
Demonstration #2—Using Markers to Present Different Values
Demonstration #3—Presenting Different Values on a Curved Surface with Markers
Demonstration #4—Presenting Wood and Benches with Markers
Demonstration #5—Drawing Masonry Wall with Markers
Demonstration #6—Rendering Windows from an Interior View with Markers
Demonstration #7—Rendering Furniture with Markers

Exercise 7.1: Rendering Wood with Markers
Exercise 7.2: Rendering a Masonry Wall with Markers
Exercise 7.3: Rendering Window Drapery with Markers
Exercise 7.4: Rendering a Sofa with Markers

Summary
Key Terms
Additional Exercises