Contents

List of illustrations vii
List of contributors xiii
List of sources xvii
Prologue xix

Introduction: systems, technics, and society 1
Kiel Moe and Ryan E. Smith

PART 1
Building systems 11

1 Construction history: between technological and cultural history 13
   Antoine Picon

2 How the introduction of iron in construction changed and developed thought patterns in design 34
   Tom F. Peters

3 Retrofitting and redacting masonry engineering 73
   Philippe Block

4 Building systems/building territories: industrialized housing delivery and the role of the architect 86
   Ivan Rupnik

PART 2
Building economies 105

5 “Architecture or Revolution”: Taylorism, technocracy, and social change 109
   Mary McLeod
Contents

6 Glass and light: the influence of interior illumination on the “Chicago School” 145
   Thomas Leslie

7 Obsolescence: notes towards a history 159
   Daniel M. Abramson

8 Risky business, fishy forms 171
   Ellen Dineen Grimes

PART 3
Building ecologies 183

9 Household conditioning (if you are cold, put on a sweater) 185
   William W. Braham

10 A house within a house 193
    Hilary Sample

11 Architectural production and sociotechnical codes: a theoretical framework 212
    Steven A. Moore and Barbara B. Wilson

Annotated bibliography 229
List of illustration credits 237
Index 241