Panel of Reviewers vii

Part I: Papers

Evolutionary parallels between language and tool use
Michael A. Arbib
3

Cortico-cortical and cortico-cerebellar computations in language change
Giorgos P. Argyropoulos
11

Towards language acquisition by cognitive developmental robotics
Minoru Asada
19

Protolanguage, discrete infinity and interfaces: Investigating the evolution of the language and music faculty within the minimalist program
Rie Asano
26

Language and friendships: A co-evolution model of social and linguistic conventions
Martin Bachwerk & Carl Vogel
34

Campbell’s monkeys alarm calls are not morpheme-based
Lluis Barceló-Coblijn & Antoni Gomila
42

On the inference ‘Neanderthals had FOXP2 = they had complex language’
Antonio Benitez-Burraco & Victor M. Longa
50

The impact of L2 speakers on the evolution of case marking
Christian Bentz & Bodo Winter
58

Introducing pressure for expressivity into language evolution experiments
Aleksandrs Berdicevskis
64

The evolution of the Greenbergian word order correlations
Jeremy Collins
72

Semiotic investigations into early forms of symbolism and language
Christophe Coupe
80

Sea crossings are an unreliable indicator of language ability in hominids
Cory Cuthbertson & Luke McCrohon
88

Overgeneralization of verbs — The change of the German verb system
Maria Delz, Benjamin Layer, Sarah Schulz & Johannes Wahle
96
Was the introduction of writing an evolutionary transition?
Jan Terje Faarlund

Medium and long-run properties of linguistic community evolution
Michael J. Fox, Georgios Piliouras & Jeff S. Shamma

Scales, salience and referential safety: The benefit of communicating the extreme
Michael Franke

Non-human primates cannot decontextualize and objectify the actions of their conspecifics
Tom Froese, Takashi Ikegami & Mike Beaton

How did predication evolve?
David Gil

Individual and social effects on linguistic diffusion
Tao Gong, Mónica Tamariz & Gerhard Jäger

Ontogeny of two communicative tools: Distance encoding & multimodality in deictic pointing
Chloe Gonselh, Anne Vilain & Coriandre Vilain

Speech development in previously aphonic children after airway reconstruction recapitulates evolution of spoken language
Caroline N. Green, Lynn E. Driver, Lauren A. Bohm & Glenn E. Green

Syntax evolved gradually
James R. Hurford

The case for Neanderthal language – How strong is it?
Sverker Johansson

Meanings of touching object parts in pointing
Harumi Kobayashi & Tetsuya Yasuda

The evolution of morphology and the diversity of grammatical systems
Anja Latrouite

What’s the scope of the Naming Game? Constraints on semantic categorization
Andy Lücking & Alexander Mehler

The origins of linguistic predicate/argument structure
Erkki Luuk

The voice of things: The revolution of human language and its origin from sound imitation
Giuseppe Maiorano
Empirical approaches to recursion
   Mauricio Martins & W. Tecumseh Fitch 219

Outgroup: The study of chimpanzees to know the human mind
   Tetsuro Matsuzawa 227

A modulation-demodulation model for speech communication and its emergence Nobuaki Minematsu 234

Signaling conventions: Who learns what where and when in a social network?
   Roland Mühlenbernd & Michael Franke 242

Hominin cooperation and language evolution
   Albert F. H. Naccache 250

Morphing social communication networks from chimpanzee to human type
   Sara A. Najem, Jihad R. Touma & Albert F. H. Naccache 258

Gesture and the origins of language
   Dillon Niederhut 266

Ambiguity resolution and evolution of word order
   Mieko Ogura & William S.-Y. Wang 274

When recursion collapses: Evidence from discourse interaction
   Toshio Ohori 282

Cognitive construal, mental spaces and the evolution of language and cognition
   Michael Pleyer 288

Spatial dynamics of language
   Archishman Raju 296

Are web search queries an evolving protolanguage?
   Rishiraj Saha Roy, Monojit Choudhury & Kalika Bali 304

Language change in socially structured populations
   Ruth Schulz, Matthew Whittington & Janet Wiles 312

Language lateralization, categorical perception and language evolution
   Lan Shuai & Tao Gong 320

Potential stages in the cultural evolution of spatial language
   Michael Spranger 328

Visual artificial grammar learning: Comparative research on humans and birds
   Nina Stobbe & Tecumseh W. Fitch 336
Syntax of mind – Semantics of mind: Two Frameworks for comparative approaches to the evolution of language and music

Sun Xiaoxia & Seifert Uwe

Displacement in communication

Kaori Tamura & Takashi Hashimoto

The emergence of morphosyntactic case systems

Remi van Trijp

Holistic or synthetic protolanguage: Evidence from iterated learning of whistled signals

Tessa Verhoef, Bart de Boer & Simon Kirby

The information rate of modern speech and its implications for language evolution

John Villasenor, Yuxing Han, Daniel Wen, Esther Gonzalez & Jianwen Chen

Robustness as a design feature of speech communication

Bodo Winter & Morten H. Christiansen

The cooperative nature of conversation: Evidence from conversational exchanges

Przemysław Żywieckiński & Slawomir Wacewicz

Part II: Abstracts

Postnatal acquirement of the ability to discriminate culturally shared song syntax in songbirds

Kentaro Abe

A simple integrated framework for investigating genetic and cultural evolution of language

Tsubasa Azumagakito, Reiji Suzuki & Takaya Arita

An adaptationist approach to the audience design hypothesis

Rachael Bailes

The exponent of Zipf’s law in language ontogeny

Jaume Baixeries, Ramon Ferrer-i-Cancho & Brita Elvevåg

Reconciling the diversity of languages with the biological uniformity of their speakers

Andrea Baronchelli, Nick Chater, Romualdo Pastor-Satorras & Morten H. Christiansen

Homo combinans

Cédric Boeckx
The effects of modified variables on an iterated learning model of linguistic evolution by cultural transmission
Jon William Carr

Is pantomime a likely stage in language evolution? Evidence from human and primate gesture
Erica A. Cartmill & Susan Goldin-Meadow

Is And a fossil?: Coordination and the origin of compositionality
Wayne Cowart, Dana McDaniel, Kathryn H. Thompson & Tatiana Romanchishina

The first word was not a noun
Cory Cuthbertson

Iconicity in structured form and meaning spaces
Bart de Boer

Neither nature nor nurture: Coevolution, devolution, and universality of language
Terrence W. Deacon

Comparative histological data between the vocal folds of humans and bonobo
Didier Demolin & Sergio Hassid

On some parallels between the vocal apparatus and musical instruments, and their consequences for the evolution of language and music
José Roberto do Carmo Jr.

Topographic learning and the arbitrary, categorial lexicon
T. Mark Ellison

Social interaction is critical to the evolution of human communication systems (and why)
Nicolas Fay, Bradley Walker & Alan Bailey

Searching for substance in the Baldwin Effect: When learning causally affects genetic adaptation
Vanessa Ferdinand, Simon Kirby & Kenny Smith

Molecular windows into speech and language
Simon E. Fisher

Me to we: Cooperation, conflict, and the evolution of language
Jacob G. Foster

A search for metacognition in avians
Kazuo Fujita
Simulating the coevolution of language and joint attention

  Tao Gong & Lan Shuai

Neutral models for language evolution

  Thomas L. Griffiths

Paleogenomics and the vocal auditory channel in archaic humans

  John Hawks

Infants’ own-cry perception for language acquisition

  Reiko Hoshi-Shiba, Yulri Nonaka, Hiromi Nito, Akemi Utsumi, Katsumi Mizuno, Yoshiharu Mukai & Kazuo Okanoya

Evolution of symbolic communication in the perceptual crossing experiment

  Hiroyuki Iizuka, Davide Marocco, Hideyuki Ando & Taro Maeda

Recent archaeological evidence suggests much earlier emergence of human UG

  Masayuki Ike-uchi

Sound symbolism helps infants’ word learning

  Mutsumi Imai, Michiko Asano, Michiko Miyazaki, Hiroyuki Okada, Henny Yeung, Keiichi Kitajo, Guillaume Thierry & Sotaro Kita

Male gibbons change the note order according to the behavioral situations

  Yoichi Inoue, Waidi Sinun, Shigeto Yoshida & Kazuo Okanoya

Triadic niche construction: A scenario of human brain evolution realizing tool-use and language

  Atsushi Iriki

Phase theory and the role of cognitive constraints in the maximal expansion of syntactic trees

  Aritz Iruritzun

Modelling the evolution of creoles

  Fredrik Jansson, Mikael Parkvall & Pontus Strimling

Innate template difference could induce signal complexity: A comparison of song features under auditory isolation between wild and domesticated finches

  Hiroko Kagawa, Kenta Suzuki, Miki Takahasi & Kazuo Okanoya

The role of STS in mimetic-word processing: Sound symbolism or biological motion?

  Junko Kanero, Mutsumi Imai, Hiroyuki Okada & Tetsuya Matsuda
A parsimonious representation with hidden states for birdsong syntax: An implication to human syntax evolution

Kentaro Katahira, Kenta Suzuki, Hiroko Kagawa, Kazuo Okanoya & Masato Okada

Expression analysis of language-related genes in the common marmoset brain

Masaki Kato, Kazuo Okanoya, Taku Koike, Shigeru Watanabe & Atsushi Iriki

Song memory including sequential information in male Bengalese finch's auditory area

Yoko Kato, Masaki Kato & Kazuo Okanoya

Pitch intervals in relation to the origin of language

Ai Kawakami, Kiyoshi Furukawa & Kazuo Okanoya

Minimization of Universal Grammar, reliance on third factor principles, and feasibility of inquiry into evolutionary origins

Hisatsugu Kitahara

Why language has structure: New evidence from studying cultural evolution in the lab and what it means for biological evolution

Simon Kirby

How is pragmatic grounding formed in symbolic communication systems?

Takeshi Konno, Junya Morita & Takashi Hashimoto

The evolution of morphological agreement

Richard Littauer

Re-dating the loss of laryngeal air sacs in Homo sapiens

Richard Littauer

On the origin of the hierarchy of color names

Vittorio Loreto, Animesh Mukherjee & Francesca Tria

The meaning of nonsense words

Gary Lupyan & Daniel Casasanto

Nonhuman primates do declare! Declaratives as evidence for mental time-travel in apes

Heidi Lyn, Patricia Greenfield, Sue Savage-Rumbaugh, Kristen Gillespe-Lynch & William D. Hopkins

Building a language-competent species: Contributions of brain and environment to cognition and communication in apes and monkeys

Heidi Lyn, Jamie L. Russell, Jennifer Schaeffer, Peter Pierre, Allyson J. Bennett, Scott Fears, Roger Woods & William D. Hopkins
Dynamic expression of cadherins controls vocal learning
Eiji Matsunaga, Kenta Suzuki, Ryoko Nakagawa,
Tohru Kurotani & Kazuo Okanoya

Simulating the effects of cultural coadaptation on rates of endogenous and exogenous language change
Luke McCrohon

The Drosophila FoxP gene is required for operant self-learning: Implications for the evolution of language
Ezequiel Mendoza, Julien Colomb, Jürgen Rybak, Hans-Joachim Pflüger, Troy Zars, Constance Scharff & Björn Brembs

The evolution of miscommunication
Gregory J. Mills

The Gricean intentional structure of ape gestural communication
Richard Moore

Cerebral laterality for prosody processing in human neonates: Evidence from multichannel near-infrared spectroscopy
Nozomi Naoi, Yutaka Fuchino, Minoru Shibata, Masahiko Kawai, Yukuo Konishi, Kazuo Okanoya & Masako Myowa-Yamakoshi

The irreducible semantic communicative drive: Imagination and culture beyond the hands
Rafael Núñez

Structural reanalysis of responses to musical tonality: Commonality with the neural processing of emotion in language
Hidefumi Ohmura, Takayuki Hainano, Tomasz M. Rutkowski, Hiroko Terasawa, Kazuo Okanoya & Kiyoshi Furukawa

Failure of operant discrimination learning of simple algebraic concept in a songbird
Kazuo Okanoya, Kenta Suzuki & Yoshimasa Seki

Rodent ultrasonic vocalization as a model of human speech: A molecular and cellular view
Noriko Osumi

Parrots as models for language evolution
Irene M. Pepperberg

A model of the evolution of frequent social communication
Justin Quillinan
Recursivity is a by-product of associative learning and working memory constraints: Evidence from baboons (Papio papio)

Arnaud Rey, Pierre Perruchet & Joel Fagot

A bottom-up approach to language evolution

Seán G. Roberts

The nature of coordination: Evidence from Russian

Tatiana Romanchishina & Kathryn H. Thompson

No words without syntax no syntax without words

Joana Rosselló, Celia Alba, Txuss Martin & Oriol Borrega

Out of the brains of babes: Domain-general learning mechanisms and domain-specific systems

Jenny Saffran

Evolution of 'small-world' birdsong syntax: An implication for language evolution

Kazutoshi Sasahara, Martin L. Cody & Charles E. Taylor

How do communication systems emerge, and what does this tell us about language?

Thomas C. Scott-Phillips

The origin of the learning system of sequential vocalizations: Neural activity of basal-ganglia in singing behavior and a cognitive task in songbirds

Yoshimasa Seki, Neal A. Hessler & Kazuo Okanoya

Simulating language convergence

Lan Shuai, Tao Gong & Umberto Ansaldo

Linguistic replicators: A wild goose chase?

Andrew D. M. Smith

Iterated learning in populations: Learning and evolving expectations about linguistic homogeneity

Kenny Smith & Bill Thompson

Regularization of linguistic variation in populations

Kenny Smith, Elizabeth Wonnacott & Amy Perfors

Abductive inference and insight in the evolution of symbolic communication

Justin Sulik

Grammaticalization, light verbs, and the origins of complex language

John D. Sundquist
Divergence and convergence in vocal cultures
Miki Takahasi, Hiroko Kagawa, Kenta Suzuki, Olga Fehér & Kazuo Okanoya

Replication and emergence processes in language evolution
Mónica Tamariz

The effects of generation turnover and interlocutor negotiation on linguistic structure
Mónica Tamariz, Hannah Cornish, Kenny Smith, Séan Roberts & Simon Kirby

Cultural evolution renders linguistic nativism implausible
Bill Thompson, Kenny Smith & Simon Kirby

Naming a structured world: A cultural route to duality of patterning
Francesco Tria, Bruno Galantucci & Vittorio Loreto

Neural correlates of song perception during Zebra finch song learning as shown by bold fMRI
Anne van der Kant & Annemie van der Linden

Human non-lexical vocal events and prosody in the perspective of language evolution
Anne Vanpè & Didier Demolin

Biased copying in the evolution of human communication systems
Bradley Walker, Nicolas Fay & T. Mark Ellison

Emotion, approach-avoidance motivation, and blending in the evolution of language
Paul A. Wilson & Barbara Lewandowska-Tomaszczyk

The myth surrounding the ban by Société de Linguistique de Paris
Hajime Yamauchi, Terrence W. Deacon & Kazuo Okanoya

Why language evolved only once
Charles Yang

Intersubjectivity as the key precondition for language: Its Evolution (and possible devolution)
Jordan Zlatev
