New Narratives of Urban Space in Republican Chinese Cities

Emerging Social, Legal and Governance Orders

Edited by
Billy K. L. So and Madeleine Zelin

BRILL
LEIDEN • BOSTON
2013
CONTENTS

List of Contributors ........................................................................................................ vii
Acknowledgements ......................................................................................................... xi

1. Urban Space in Republican Chinese Cities as Seen through Cultural Narratives: A Prologue ................................................. 1
   Billy K. L. So and Madeleine Zelin

PART ONE

SOCIAL ORDER

2. Changing Spaces and Civilized Weddings in Republican China ........................................................................................................ 15
   Antonia Finnane

3. City-Building, New Life and the 'Making of the Citizen' in 1930s Nanchang ........................................................................................................................................ 45
   Federica Ferlanti

4. Wartime Refugee Relief in Chinese Cities and Women's Political Activism, 1937–1940 ........................................................................................................ 65
   Harriet Zurndorfer

PART TWO

LAW AND ORDER

5. Unorganized Crime: Forgers, Soldiers, and Shopkeepers in Beijing, 1927, 1928 ........................................................................................................................................ 95
   Brett Sheehan

6. The Ordering of Crime in Republican Beijing from the 1910s to the 1930s ......................................................................................................................... 113
   Michael Hoi Kit Ng
7. Dangerous Cities: Judicial Authorities, Criminologists, and the Perception of Crime Zones in 1920s and 1930s China  .... 135
   Jan Kiely

PART THREE GOVERNANCE ORDER

   Robert Bickers

9. Provincializing the City: Canton and the Reshaping of Guangdong Provincial Administration, 1912–1937 .............. 197
   John Fitzgerald

10. Xi'an, 1900–1940: From Isolated Backwater to Resistance Center .......................................................................................... 223
    Pierre-Étienne Will

Index .................................................................................................................. 275