THE NEW PASTORALISM
LANDSCAPE INTO ARCHITECTURE

03|2013
IN THIS ISSUE

GUEST-EDITED BY MARK TITMAN

THE NEW PASTORALISM:
LANDSCAPE INTO ARCHITECTURE

5 EDITORIAL
Helen Castle

6 ABOUT THE GUEST-EDITOR
Mark Titman

8 SPOTLIGHT
Visual highlights of the issue

14 INTRODUCTION
Dualism is Dead;
Long Live the Pastoral
Mark Titman

20 Samuel Palmer and the Pastoral Vision
Colin Harrison

26 The Golden Age: Between
Wilderness and Utopia
Dominic Shepherd

32 'You Can Touch But Do Not Read':
The 'Future-Rustic' Work of Kathryn Findlay
Mark Titman

40 The Land of Scattered Seeds
John Patnick

48 Wild City: MVRDV – Weaving Nature and the Urban
Marta Pozo Gil

56 Surviving Versus Living: Nature and Nurture
May Leung

EDITORIAL BOARD
Will Alsop
Denise Bratton
Paul Brisbin
Mark Burn
André Chazar
Nigel Coates
Peter Cook
Teddy Cruz
Max Follham
Massimiliano Fudos
Edwin Heathcote
Michael Hess
Anthony Hunt
Charles Jencks
Bob Macell
Jayne Merkel
Peter Murray
Mark Robbins
Deborah Saunt
Patrik Schumacher
Neil Spiller
Leon van Schaik
Michael Wenzelstock
Ken Yeang
Alejandro Zaera-Polo

106
Pastoralism allows architecture to explore human-centred green issues that interpret and commodify nature for the higher aim of urbanites' delight, self- and spiritual realisation. — Mark Titman