III. LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	XIII
CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION	1
1.1 UNDERSTANDING THE PHENOMENON OF SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP	1
1.2 RESEARCH GAPS IN THE FIELD OF SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP	4
1.3 SYNTHESIS AND OVERRIDING RESEARCH QUESTION OF THIS DISSERTATION	8
1.3.1 Legitimacy and Resource Effects in Social Partnerships	14
1.3.2 Joint Social Value Creation in Social Partnerships	15
1.3.3 Scaling Social Value Created	17
CHAPTER 2: YOU SCRATCH MY BACK AND I SCRATCH YOURS: HOW SOCIAL ENTERPRISES AND THEIR KEY PARTNERS LEGITIMIZE EACH OTHER THROUGH THEIR RELATIONSHIP	19
2.1 INTRODUCTION	20
2.2 LITERATURE REVIEW	23
2.2.1 Social Enterprises and Their Key Partners	23
2.2.2 The Construct of Legitimacy in Institutional Theory	24
2.2.3 The Construct of Interpartner Legitimacy	25
2.3 HYPOTHESES	26
	VII

2.3.1 Interpartner Legitimacy and External Legitimacy	26
2.3.2 Interpartner Legitimacy and Resource Transfer	27
2.3.3 Resource Transfer and External Legitimacy	28
2.4 METHOD AND DATA	30
2.4.1 Sample and Procedure	30
2.4.2 Measures	31
2.4.2.1 Dependent Variable: External Legitimacy	31
2.4.2.2 Independent Variables	32
2.4.3 Analyses	33
2.5 RESULTS	34
2.5.1 Quality of the Structural Equation Model	34
2.5.2 Hypothesis Testing	37
2.6 DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSION	39
2.6.1 Developing a Measure for Interpartner Legitimacy	40
2.6.2 Interpartner Legitimacy as a Lever for External Legitimacy	41
2.6.3 Interplay between Transfer of Resources and External Legitimacy	42
2.6.4 Institutional Links between Organizations, Their Partnership, and Society	42
2.7 MANAGERIAL IMPLICATIONS	43
2.8 LIMITATIONS AND FUTURE RESEARCH	44
CHAPTER 3: CHALLENGING THE VALUE-PARADIGM OF CROSS-SECTOR PARTNERSHIPS	45
3.1 INTRODUCTION	46
3.2 INTERORGANIZATIONAL RELATIONSHIPS IN THE NFP SECTOR	48
3.3 HYPOTHESES	51

3.3.1 Joint Value Creation by Partnerships in the NFP Sector	51
3.3.2 Cross-sector versus Within-sector Partnerships	54
3.4 DATA AND METHOD	56
3.4.1 Data	56
3.4.2 Measures	57
3.4.2.1 Dependent Variable: Social Value Created (Single Organizational and Partnership Level)	58
3.4.2.2 Independent Variables	58
3.4.3 Method	60
3.5 RESULTS	61
3.6 DISCUSSION	68
3.6.1 Joint Social Value Created	68
3.6.2 Joint Resources as Key Driver for Joint Value Creation	69
3.6.3 Partnership Costs	71
3.6.4 Challenging the Superiority of Cross-sector Partnerships	72
3.7 IMPLICATIONS	73
3.8 CONCLUSION	76
CHAPTER 4: SCALING SOCIAL IMPACT – A THEORETICALLY GROUNDED FRAMEWORK	77
4.1 INTRODUCTION	78
4.2 LITERATURE REVIEW	79
4.3 DEVELOPMENT OF A SCALABILITY FRAMEWORK	93
4.3.1 Development of Key Components of the Scalability Framework	93
4.3.1.1 Precondition: Viable operational model	95

4.3.1.2 Commitment of the Individuals Driving the Scaling Process	96
4.3.1.3 Management Competence	97
4.3.1.4 Entire or Partial Replicability of the Operational Model	99
4.3.1.5 Ability to Identify the Scope of Social Demands	100
4.3.1.6 Ability to Obtain Necessary Resources	101
4.3.1.7 Potential Effectiveness of Scaling Social Impact with Others	104
4.3.1.8 Adaptability	105
4.3.2 Types of Scaling Strategies	107
4.3.3 Interrelations between Key Components and Scaling Strategies	108
4.3.4 Critical Decision-making Path	109
4.4 DISCUSSION	113
4.4.1 Segregation of Key Terminologies of Scaling	113
4.4.2 Identification of Clusters of Key Drivers that Determine the Scaling of Social Impact	114
4.4.3 Interplay between Key Drivers and Components of Scalability	114
4.4.4 Linking Key Components with Four Types of Strategy	116
4.4.5 Differences of Scaling in the Social Sector as Opposed to the Commercial Sector	116
4.5 CONTRIBUTION AND IMPLICATIONS	118
4.6 LIMITATIONS AND FUTURE RESEARCH	120
