Nordic Prosody VI
Papers from a symposium

Edited by Björn Granström and Lennart Nord

Almqvist & Wiksell International, Stockholm, Sweden
Table of contents

Gösta Bruce, Björn Granström, Kjell Gustafson, David House: Interaction of F0 and duration in the perception of prosodic phrasing in Swedish 7

Niels-Jørn Dyhr: An acoustical investigation of the fundamental frequency in Danish spontaneous speech. 23

Eli Fischer-Jørgensen: Stress in compounds and derivatives in 17th and 18th century Danish 33

Thorstein Fretheim, Randi Alice Nilsen: The Norwegian broad-focus avoidance strategy 49

Eva Gårding: Focal domains and their tonal manifestations in some Swedish dialect 65

Nina Grønnun: Perceptual invariance in Danish stress group patterns 77

Merle Horne and Christer Johansson: Computational tracking of 'new' vs 'given' information: implications for synthesis of intonation. 85

Antti Livonen: Acoustical features of accentuation as a basis of prosodic style 99

Gjert Kristoffersen: An autosegmental analysis of East Norwegian pitch accent 109

Anita Kruckenber and Gunnar Fant: Iambic versus trochaic patterns in poetry reading 123

Diana Krull: Temporal and tonal correlates to quantity in Estonian 137

Bertil Lyberg and Anders Lindström: Will the time required to perform a certain fundamental frequency change restrict possible segment duration values? 151

Peter Molbak Hansen, Niels Reinholt Petersen, Ebbe Spang-Hanssen: Syntactic boundaries and pauses in read-aloud Danish prose 159

Kate Moore: Developmental disfluencies in pre-school children 173

Lennart Nord: Subglottal pressure analysis in performed speech. A pilot investigation. 183

Sverre Stensby: Prosody in a text-to-speech system for Norwegian 191

Ulla Sundberg: Child adjusted speech. A quantitative study of Swedish tonal word accent 2 199

Authors index 207

Participants 209