Nordic Lights
Education for Nation and Civic Society in the Nordic Countries, 1850–2000

Edited by Sirkka Ahonen & Jukka Rantala

Finnish Literature Society • Helsinki
Contents

Acknowledgements ........................................................................................................... 7

Introduction: Norden’s Present to the World ................................................................. 9
Sirkka Ahonen and Jukka Rantala

I BILDUNG FOR PEOPLE

The Concept of Bildung and the Education of the Citizen – Traits and Developments in the Nordic Countries 1870–2000 ........... 29
Stén Högnäs

Making the People Fit for Democracy – Kansanvalistusseura and Popular Adult Education in Finland after the General Strike of 1905 ................................................................. 51
Ilkka Männikkö

The Role of a Schoolteacher in the Making of Civic Society – Two Cases from the Grand Duchy of Finland ......................... 80
Henrik Meinander

II EDUCATION FOR NATION BUILDING

Educational Ideals and Nation Building in Norway 1840–1900 ........... 107
Ola Svein Stugu

Development of the Idea of National Education and Common School in Estonia during the 19th Century ................................. 123
Karmen Trasberg

The Role of Ethnic Minorities in Nation Building and Education – Assimilation Policies in Sweden and Norway .................. 136
Lars Elenius

Political Ethos of a Model Citizen – Ensuring the Correct Political Attitude of Elementary School Teachers During the First Decades of Finland’s Independence ........................................ 153
Jukka Rantala
III COMMON SCHOOL – A HISTORICAL PARENTHESIS?

The End of the Common School – Change in the Ethos and Politics of Education in Finland Towards the End of the 1900s ............ 175 Sirkka Ahonen

Educational Reforms in Norway in the 1990s: Civic Pluralism and National Unity in Decision-Making and Curriculum Contents ........... 204 Theo Koritzinsky

Closing remarks ........................................................................................................ 226

Contributors ............................................................................................................ 228

Bibliography ........................................................................................................... 229

Index ...................................................................................................................... 242