The Swedish Success Story?

Edited by
Kurt Almqvist & Kay Glans

English translations by Paul Fischer

Axel and Margaret Ax:son Johnson Foundation
Content

Preface 9
Introduction 11

LARS MAGNUSSON
Adaptation or over-confidence? Swedish economic history in the twentieth century 21

ROLF TORSTENDAHL
Sweden in a European perspective - special path or mainstream? 33

HÅKAN ARVIDSSON
Reflections on the dilemma of modernisation 47

SHERI BERMAN
The folkhem was a success story 61

HENRIK BERGGREN
The forward-facing angel: nationalism and modernity in Sweden in the twentieth century 67

ÅSA LINDERBORG
Historical romanticism and development optimism: on the historical perception of social democracy 81
NORBERT GÖTZ
The modern Home Sweet Home 97

RUNE JOHANSSON
The construction of Swedishness 109

JONAS FRYKMAN
Swedish mentality: between modernity and cultural nationalism 121

MIKAEL AF MALMBORG
Europe’s wars and the Swedicisation of peace 133

BO STRÅTH
Neutrality as self-awareness 147

BERND HENNINGSSEN
Jante, or the Scandinavian law of mediocrity.
On one factor in the identity of the welfare state 161

ALF W. JOHANSSON
If you seek his monument, look around!
Reflections on national identity and collective memory in Sweden after the Second World War 175

WILHELM AGRELL
In the innermost sanctum. Reflections on the mythology of Sweden’s neutrality policy and the history of questioning 187

KIM SALOMON
The revolutionary utopias of the 1960s 199

HANS INGVAR ROTH
Multi-cultural Sweden 213
KAJSA EKHOLM FRIEDMAN
From nation state to multiculturalism:
on change in Sweden at the turn of the Millennium 227

KLAS-GÖRAN KARLSSON
The Holocaust as politics and use of history –
the example of Living History 241

KRISTIAN GERNE
Sweden's success story – the happy ending.
On history, territory and virtual identity in the Europe of the Regions 253

PATRICK SALMON
Whatever happened to Swedish neutrality? 269

MATS BENNER
Success story online. Sweden – the middle way of the New Economy? 281

Notes 295
Contributors 325