Names through the Looking-Glass

Festschrift in Honour of Gillian Fellows-Jensen

July 5th 2006

Edited by

Peder Gammeltoft & Bent Jørgensen

C.A. Reitzels Forlag A/S
Copenhagen 2006
Contents

Tabula gratulatoria XI

Thorsten Andersson: Daner and Svear – tribal rivalry in prehistoric Scandinavia 1

Barbara E. Crawford: Houseby, Harray and Knarston in the West Mainland of Orkney. Toponymic indicators of administrative authority? 21

Lennart Elmevik: The Danish river name Guden – A suggested interpretation and a contribution to Danish phonology 45

Peder Gammeltoft: Scandinavian influence on Hebridean island names 53

Margaret Gelling: Anglo-Norse place-names on the Yorkshire Wolds 85

James Graham-Campbell: Some reflections on the distribution and significance of Norse place-names in northern Scotland 94

John Insley: The owl of Ousden and a morphological conundrum 119

Judith Jesch: Viking ‘geosophy’ and some colonial place-names 131

W.F.H. Nicolaisen: In praise of collegial friendship 146

R.L. Page: Impersonal names 151

David N. Parsons: Field-name statistics, Norfolk and the Danelaw 165

Rob Rentenaar: Muide and mouth. A medieval place-name element in the North Sea region 189

Else Roesdahl & David M. Wilson: The Århus rune-stones 208

Berit Sandnes: Toponyms as settlement names – of no relevance in settlement history? 230

Tom Schmidt: Torwald of Hoverstad and Williame Makriche. The complexity of the names of the “Commownis and Inhabitantis of Yetland” in 1577 254

Svavar Sigmundsson: Farm-names in Iceland containing the element tún 275

Inge Særheim: Breiangen – the broad river-winding 288

Doreen J. Waugh: The -byl-bie names of Shetland 298

Bente Holmberg: List of publications by Gillian Fellows-Jensen 322