Deconstructing Death
– Changing Cultures of Death, Dying, Bereavement and Care in the Nordic Countries

Edited by
Michael Hviid Jacobsen

University Press of Southern Denmark 2013
List of Contents

Acknowledgements  9

Introduction The Cultural Construction and Deconstruction of Death  11
– Changing Cultures of Death, Dying, Bereavement and Care in the Nordic Countries
  Michael Hviid Jacobsen

Part I Changing Cultural, Social and Professional Contexts of Death and Dying

Chapter 1 A Revival of Death?  27
– Death, Dying and Bereavement in Contemporary Society
  Vibeke Poulsen Graven, Louise Lund & Michael Hviid Jacobsen

Chapter 2 Death and Dying in the Nordic Countries  55
– Three Personal Images
  Anna Whitaker

Chapter 3 Educated to Death  77
– The Disciplinary and National Development of ‘Death Education’: Danish and American Examples, Experiences and Perspectives
  Michael Hviid Jacobsen & Michael C. Kearl

Chapter 4 Messages from the Otherworld  111
– The Roles of the Dead in Medieval Iceland
  Kirsi Kanerva

Chapter 5 Over the Limit  131
– Religious Culture as a Hidden Factor in Negative Decisions on Organ Donation in the Protestant Nordic Countries
  Anne Kjærsgaard Markussen
List of Contents

Part II Changing Mourning Rituals and Memorial Cultures

Chapter 6 Memorialisation 151
– Materialising and Locating Grief and Loss
  Anna Petersson

Chapter 7 An Existence after Death 173
– Conceptions of Faith as Expressed on Memorial Internet Websites in Norway and Sweden
  Anders Gustavsson

Chapter 8 Lighting Candles as Ritualization of Death 191
  Olaf Aagedal

Chapter 9 Rituals of Death in a Norwegian School Context 207
  Ida Marie Høeg

Part III Changing Contexts and Conceptions of Care, Compassion and Community

Chapter 10 Controlling Dying 229
– Physicians Narrating End-of-Life Issues
  Leila Jylhänkangas

Chapter 11 Inter-Professional Palliative Care 245
– Developing and Outlining Syllabi and Curricula in Educational Programmes in Palliative Care in Denmark
  Kirsten Halskov Madsen, Anette Meldgaard & Jette Henriksen

Chapter 12 Dying Behind the Scenes of Society 261
– Palliative Care in Alternative Nursing Homes for Socially Vulnerable People
  Aya Mortag Freund

Chapter 13 “All the Lonely People …” 281
– Living and Dying Alone in the Shadow of the Danish Welfare State
  Michael Hviid Jacobsen & Ida Holst

6
Chapter 14 Two Faces of Death  309
– ‘Good’ and ‘Bad’ Deaths in Contemporary Palliative Care
Michael Hviid Jacobsen & Karen Marie Dalgaard

List of Contributors  331