Table of Contents

Preface 9

Constitutionalism before 1789 11
1 Dimensions of the making of the Constitution of 1814 11
2 Understanding the dimensions of the making of the constitution of 1814 15
3 What this book is all about 21
4 The dimensions of this book 26

Aniceto Masferrer

Chapter 1 | The Constitution of Peace and Liberty in the Catalan Medieval Legal Tradition
An example of the interaction between religious law and secular law in the European Middle Ages 28
1 Introduction 28
2 The Assemblies of Peace and Truce of God 31
3 The Constitutions of Peace and Truce and their penalties 35
4 Some concluding considerations 46

Dirk Heirbaut

Chapter 2 | Galbert of Bruges on the Flemish 1127–1128 Crisis
– An early experiment in constitutionalism, parliamentarism and popular sovereignty inspired by feudal law 49
1 The speech of Ivan of Aalst: an early formulation of popular sovereignty 50
2 Revolutionary ideas fostered by feudalism 56
3 A dead end 58

Orazio Condorelli

Chapter 3 | Quod omnes tangit, debet ab omnibus approbari
60
1 Introduction. A «regula iuris» in the «Liber Sextus» of Boniface VIII 60
2 The «quod omnes tangit» principle: from Roman origins to its use in canon law 60
3 Aspects of the functioning of the «quod omnes tangit» principle:
   the majority rule 63
4 Use of the «quod omnes tangit» principle in Church administrative contexts:
   election and representation 65
5 The use of the «quod omnes tangit» principle in secular institutions and practice 67
6 The search for the foundations of the «quod omnes tangit» principle:
   natural law and reason 69
7 A voice in the Modern age: Bartolomé de las casas freedom, consent, and popular sovereignty 71
8 Conclusion 73
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Leidulf Melve

CHAPTER 4 | Propagating Constitutional Reform in the Middle Ages: The Baronial Rebellion 78
1 Introduction 78
2 Public debate and public-sphere formation in the Middle Ages 79
3 From magna carta to the Baronial rebellion: the «paper constitution» of 1244 80
4 Propagating constitutional reform: the establishment of Teilöffentlichkeiten 82
5 The Westminster parliament: extending the dialogue 88
6 Conclusion: the Baronial Rebellion and its aftermath 92

Wolfgang Müller

CHAPTER 5 | Whose Constitution? Grass-Roots and Hierarchical Visions of the Late Medieval Church 95
1 Romano-canonical procedure 97
2 Canonical Purgation 99
3 Justice constituted from below 103
4 Conclusion 104

Frode Hervik

CHAPTER 6 | Mixed Constitution in the Scandinavian Realms in the Middle Ages 107
1 The constitutional documents in the Scandinavian realms 108
2 Ideological foundation 113
3 The political circumstances 117
4 Conclusion 117

Björn Tjällén

CHAPTER 7 | Induced by the Devil? Christian I and the Privilegium Canonis 119

Andrew R C Simpson

CHAPTER 8 | Power, Reason and Equity Two Juristic Accounts of Royal Authority in Sixteenth-Century Scotland 128
1 Introduction 128
2 The political and legal context 130
3 Chalmers on royal power and authority (1566) 132
4 Judging the monarch 137
5 Conclusion 145

Heinz Mohnhaupt

CHAPTER 9 | On the Development of the Term «Verfassung» from the Plurality of the Ancien Régime’s «Leges Fundamentales» 147
1 Introduction 147
2 Defining «constitution» 148
3 Constitution and metaphors of construction 150
4 Judging the monarch 137
5 Constitution and unchangeability 160
6 Constitution and codification 162