Modernism in Italian Architecture, 1890–1940

Richard A. Etlin
Contents

Acknowledgments ix
Introduction xiii

Modernism before World War I

1 The First Italian Exposition of Architecture 3
2 Arte Nuova: Turin, 1902 23
3 Sant'Elia: From Arte Nuova to Futurism 53
4 Contextualism and the Reasoned Picturesque 101
5 A Modern Vernacular Architecture 129

Modernism between the Wars

6 Decorative Novecento Architecture 165
7 The Birth of Italian Rationalism 225
8 Rationalist Architecture: A Contextual Avant-Garde 255
9 Geometric Novecento Architecture 329

Modernism and Fascism

10 The Rationalist Discovery of Fascism 377
11 Imperial Architecture for the Fascist Revolution: Rome, 1924–1934 391
12 The Casa del Fascio, Como 439
13 The Esposizione Universale of 1942 481
14 The Danteum, Rome 517
15 Italian Rationalism and Anti-Semitism 569

Notes 599
Works Cited 679
Illustration Credits 713
Index 717