INDUSTRIAL HERITAGE RE-TOOLED

The TICCIH guide to Industrial Heritage Conservation

edited by
James Douet
Contents

List of contributors vii

Introduction  James Douet 1

Part I  Values and meanings

1 Why preserve the industrial heritage?  Neil Cossons 6
2 What does the Industrial Revolution signify?  Helmut Albrecht 17
3 Industrial archaeology: a discipline?  Barrie Trinder 24
4 The heritage of the industrial society  Louis Bergeron 31

Part II  Understanding the evidence

5 Industrial archaeology  Patrick Martin 40
6 Identifying industrial landscapes  Iain Stuart 48
7 Recording and documentation  Miles Oglethorpe and Miriam McDonald 55
8 Process recording  Gustav Rossnes 63
9 Industrial archives and company records  Belem Oviedo Gámez 70
10 Photography and image resources  Jan af Geijerstam 77

Part III  Realising the potential

11 Choosing what to preserve  Paul Smith 86
12 Legal protection  Keith Falconer 94
13 Urban regeneration and planning  Massimo Preite 101
14 Adaptive re-use  Benjamin Fragner 110
15 Financial and fiscal incentives  Bode Morin 118
16 Heritage at risk surveys  Jaime Migone 125
17 Conservation plans  Helen Lardner  129
18 Adaptive re-use and embodied energy  Mark Watson  136
19 Post-industrial landscapes  Norbert Tempel  142
20 Industrial ruins  Masaaki Okada  149
21 Conservation and community consciousness  Hsiao-Wei Lin  155
22 Industrial Heritage and the World Heritage Convention  Peter Stott  161
23 World Heritage, concepts and criteria  Michel Cotte  167
24 Thematic World Heritage Studies  Stephen Hughes  174

Part IV  Sharing and enjoying
25 Industrial museums  Massimo Negri  182
26 Care of industrial and technical collections  Johannes Großewinkelmann  188
27 Conserving industrial artefacts  Eusebi Casanelles and James Douet  195
28 Industrial heritage tourism  Wolfgang Ebert  201

Part V  Teaching and learning
29 Teaching in schools  Gràcia Dorel-Ferre  208
30 University training  György Németh  211
31 Distance and on-line learning  Tuija Mikkonen  216

Part VI  TICCIH
32 The work of TICCIH  Stuart B Smith  222
33 TICCIH's Charter for Industrial Heritage  Eusebi Casanelles  228

Appendix: The Nizhny Tagil Charter for the Industrial Heritage  235

Index  241