Farming the City

The Resilience and Decline of Urban Agriculture in European History

Resilienz und Niedergang der städtischen Landwirtschaft in der europäischen Geschichte

Jahrbuch für Geschichte des ländlichen Raumes/Rural History Yearbook 2019
Table of Contents

Special Issue: Farming the City

Erich Landsteiner/Tim Soens
Editorial: Farming the City 7

Tim Soens
Urban Agriculture and Urban Food Provisioning in Pre-1850 Europe: Towards a Research Agenda 13

Roberto Leggero/Mirella Montanari
Two Experiences of Urban Agriculture in Medieval Piedmont. A Comparison of Chieri and Novara (Twelfth and Thirteenth Centuries) 29

Henry R. French
"... a great hurt to many, and of advantage to very few". Urban Comon Lands, Civic Government, and the Problem of Resource Management in English Towns, 1500–1840 50

Piotr Miodunka
The Longue Durée in Polish Towns: Agriculture from the Sixteenth to the Nineteenth Century 75

Pieter De Graef/Wouter Ronsijn
From Home Food Production to Professional Farming. The Social and Geographical Continuum of Urban Agriculture: Nineteenth-century Oudenaarde and Kortrijk, Belgium 95

Ines Peper
Between Village, Utopian Settlement, and Garden City: Urban Agriculture in the Company Housing Project of Eisenheim (Founded in 1844) in Historical Context 122

Åsa Ahrland
Fields, Meadows, and Gardens – an Integral Part of the City. The Example of Södermalm in Stockholm, Sweden 144

Erich Landsteiner
Urban Viticulture in Late Medieval and Early Modern Central Europe 168
Johannes Koder
Landwirtschaft beiderseits der Stadtmauern. Konstantinopels Versorgung mit Gemüse aufgrund der Geoponika

Articles

Carine Pachoud/Markus Schermer
Reconciling Tradition and Innovation in Traditional Mountain Cheese Value Chains: The Role of Social Capital. The Case of the Artisanal Serrano Cheese Value Chain in Southern Brazil