PHILIP JOHNSON. THE CONSTANCY OF CHANGE.

Edited by Emmanuel Petit

Foreword by Robert A. M. Stern

Essays by Beatriz Colomina, Peter Eisenman, Kurt W. Forster, Mark Jarzombek, Charles Jencks, Phyllis Lambert, Reinhold Martin, Detlef Mertins, Stanislaus von Moos, Joan Ockman, Terence Riley, Vincent Scally, Michael Sorkin, Kazys Varnelis, Ujjval Vyas, Mark Wigley

Yale University Press / New Haven and London
in association with the Yale University School of Architecture
Contents

vii Foreword
   Robert A. M. Stern
ix Acknowledgments
1 Introduction
   Emmanuel Petit

ROAMING THROUGH HISTORY.
18 Philip Johnson:
   Art and Irony
   Vincent Scully
38 The Autobiographical House:
   Around a Haunted Hearth
   Kurt W. Forster
60 Philip Johnson:
   Act One, Scene One—
   The Museum of Modern Art?
   Terence Riley with Joshua Sacks
68 Johnson on TV
   Beatriz Colomina

SOCIETY, POWER, AND POLITICS.
82 The Figurehead:
   On Monumentality and Nihilism
   in Philip Johnson's Life and Work
   Joan Ockman
110 Liquidity:
   Architecture and Oil
   Reinhold Martin
120 Philip Johnson's Empire:
   Network Power and the
   AT&T Building
   Kazys Varnelis
136 Philip Johnson and the Smile
   of Medusa
   Charles Jencks
152 The Plot Against Architecture
   Michael Sorkin

RECKONING WITH MODERNISM.
160 The Delicacy of Modern Tastes
   Detlef Mertins
170 Playboy Architecture Then
   and Now
   Stanislaus von Moos
190 Philip Johnson:
   Breaking with Modernism—
   The "Whence & Whither" of It
   Phyllis Lambert
208 Reaction Design
   Mark Wigley

THEORY.
220 Philip Johnson: Romanticism
   and Disintegration
   Peter Eisenman
230 Philip Johnson and the Rhetoric of the New: Panta Rhei
   versus the Avant-Garde
   Ujjval Vyas
234 Working Out Johnson's
   Role in History
   Mark Jarzombek

240 The New Canaan Estate:
   A Gallery
262 List of Contributors
266 Index
278 Illustration Credits