The ToLearn Experience:
Learning how to Foster Sustainable Tourism in the North Sea Region

HORST STERR, CHRISTOPH CORVES UND GÖTZ VON ROHR

KIEL 2009
Contents

Acknowledgements

Horst Sterr, Götz von Rohr, Dirk Schmücker, Christoph Corves, Kiel, D
The ToLearn Project:
Holistic Concept, Methodological Approach and Synthesis of Results
1 - 13

Ulf Sonntag, Henrike Beer, Kiel, D
Tourism Development in the North Sea Region – Analysing Official Tourism Statistics in the Context of the Interreg IIB Project ToLearn
15 - 26

Kerstin Hoffmann, Michael Schultz, Kiel, D
North Sea Tourism Regions in Comparison
27 - 50

Albert Postma, Leeuwarden, NL
Pilot Region: The Frisian Wadden Area, Stakeholder Communication, Knowledge Management and Innovations
51 - 64

Kerstin Hoffmann, Kiel, D
Sustainable Tourism Development in the Region Uthlande: The Importance of Communication, Networking, Knowledge Management and Innovations
65 - 86

Renata Januszewska, Jacques Viaene, Gent, B
Innovation and Sustainability at the Belgian North Sea Coast – The Beaufort Case
37 - 96

Albert Postma, Johan Kasper, Peter Huig, Leeuwarden, NL
Implementing an Innovative Project for Sustainable Tourism Promotion: The TOERDATA NOORD Example from the Netherlands
97 - 104

Christian Galonska & Christoph Corves, Kiel, D
NordseeRouten – a Fully Georeferenced Visitor Information System for the German North Sea Region Uthlande
105 - 123

Christoph Corves, Kerstin Hoffmann, Sandra Enderwitz, Kiel, D & Anja Hergesell, Niels Chr. Nielsen, Esbjerg, DK
Pursuing Sustainable Tourism through Innovation: The Case of Regional Produce 125 - 142

Katharina Drews, Kiel, D
What Makes Sustainable Tourism a Success? Good Practise Examples from around the North Sea
143 - 168