Contents

Notes on Contributors xi
List of Figures xv
Acknowledgements xix

Introduction: Independent Cinema in Southeast Asia
Tilman Baumgärtel 1

1 Essays

1. Southeast Asian Independent Cinema: Independent of What?
   John A. Lent 13

2. Imagined Communities, Imagined Worlds: Independent Film from Southeast Asia in the Global Mediascape
   Tilman Baumgärtel 21

3. Hinterland, Heartland, Home: Affective Topography in Singapore Films
   Alfian Bin Saat 33

4. Stealing Moments: A History of the Forgotten in Recent Singaporean Film
   Ben Slater 51

5. Fiction, Interrupted: Discontinuous Illusion and Regional Performance
   Traditions in Contemporary Thai Independent Film
   Natalie Böhler 59

6. Cinema, Sexuality and Censorship in Post-Soeharto Indonesia
   Intan Paramaditha 69

7. Independent versus Mainstream Islamic Cinema in Indonesia: Religion
   Using the Market or Vice Versa?
   Tito Imanda 89
Contents

8. Observational Documentary Comes to Indonesia: Aryo Danusiri's Lukas' Moment 105
   David Hanan

II Documents

9. Four Manifestos 119
   Khavn de la Cruz

10. Why Ciplak ended up being made 125
    Khairil M. Bahar

11. Singapore GaGa Tours Singapore 131
    Tan Pin Pin

12. The Downside of Digital: A German media critic plays devil's advocate 141
    Tilman Baumgärtel et al.

13. I Sinema Manifesto 151

III Interviews

14. “An inexpensive film should start with an inexpensive story” 155
    Interview with Brillante Mendoza and Armando Bing Lao
    Tilman Baumgärtel

15. “Digital is liberation theology” 171
    Interview with Lav Diaz
    Tilman Baumgärtel

16. “I make films for myself” 179
    Interview with Apichatpong Weerasethakul
    Tilman Baumgärtel

17. “I love making films, but not getting films made” 191
    Interview with Pen-ek Ratanaruang
    Tilman Baumgärtel

18. “I want the people of Indonesia to see a different point of view, whether they agree with it or not” 201
    Interview with Nia Dinata
    Tilman Baumgärtel

19. “I do not have anything against commercial films” 213
    Interview with Eric Khoo
    Tilman Baumgärtel
20. The Page and the (Video) Camera
Conversation with Amir Muhammad
Davide Cazzaro

21. "I want you to forget about the race of the protagonists half an hour into the film"
Interview with Yasmin Ahamad
Tilman Baumgärtel

Notes
Bibliography
Index