Architectural Theories of the Environment: Posthuman Territory

Edited by Ariane Lourie Harrison
Contents

ix Acknowledgements

3 Introduction:
Charting Posthuman Territory
Ariane Lourie Harrison

Section I: Posthuman Subjects

37 Unfinished Work:
From Cyborg to Cognisphere
N. Katherine Hayles

44 Post-Animal Life
Catherine Ingraham

52 The Next Subject:
A Conversation with Dr. Caleb Finch
Seth Harrison

61 Approaching a New Biotope
Francisco González de Canales

69 The Biosphere of Machines:
Enter the Parasite
Matteo Pasquinelli

Case Studies

80 Arakawa and Gins, Bioscleave House
East Hampton, NY, 1999–2008
Ariane Lourie Harrison

88 Arons en Gelauff, The Plassenburgh

96 R&Sie(n), I’m Lost in Paris
Paris, France, 2008
Section II: Posthuman Assemblages

107 Give Me a Gun and I Will Make All Buildings Move: An ANT's View of Architecture
Bruno Latour and Albena Yaneva

115 Lose the Building: Systems Theory, Architecture, and Diller + Scofidio's Blur
Cary Wolfe

138 Pragmatic Ecologies
Simon Guy

151 Futures, Cities, Architecture
Elizabeth Grosz

154 Against Program
William J. Mitchell

163 Metabolic Urbanization: The Making of Cyborg Cities
Erik Swyngedouw

Case Studies

182 Minifie Nixon (now Minifie van Schaik Architects), Australian Wildlife Heath Center
Melbourne, Australia, 2006

190 The Living, Living Light Pavilion, Peace Park
Seoul, South Korea, 2009

198 Studio Gang Architects, Ford Calumet Environmental Center
Calumet, Illinois, 2004-present
Section III: Posthuman Territory

209 Zones of Indistinction: Bio-political Contestations in the Urban Arena
Matthew Gandy

227 Anima Urbis
Jennifer Wolch

249 Hybrid Cartographies for a Relational Ethics
Sarah Whatmore

258 The Emergent Alternative
Gilles Clément

278 Risk, Globalization, and the Cosmopolitan Imaginary
Ursula K. Heise

Case Studies

288 The Living and Natalie Jeremijenko, Amphibious Architecture
East River, New York, 2009
Ariane Lourie Harrison

296 SCAPE, Oyster-lecture
Project, 2010; Pilot in Brooklyn, NY, 2011–present

304 Casagrande Lab, Ruin Academy
Taipei, Taiwan, 2010–present

315 Notes on Contributors

320 Text and Image Credits

322 Index