Mission–Driven Approaches in Modern Business Education

Brent Smith
Saint Joseph’s University, USA
Table of Contents

Preface........................................................................................................................................... xv

Acknowledgment .......................................................................................................................... xxi

Chapter 1
Teaching Normatively: An Approach for Integrating Mission Values Across the Business
Curriculum....................................................................................................................................... 1

Brian K. Steverson, Gonzaga University, USA
Adriane D. Leithauser, Gonzaga University, USA

Chapter 2
Developing Leadership Potential for Success in a VUCA (Volatile, Unpredictable, Complex, and Ambiguous) World...................................................................................................................... 20

Suri Weisfeld-Spolter, Nova Southeastern University, USA
Eleanor T. Lawrence, Nova Southeastern University, USA
Maggie W. Dunn, Nova Southeastern University, USA

Chapter 3
Native American Approaches to Social Entrepreneurship....................................................... 46

Charles Harrington, University of South Carolina Upstate, USA
Gavin S. Clarkson, New Mexico State University, USA

Chapter 4
Data-Driven Readability Assessments of Jesuit Business Schools’ Mission Statements.......... 62

Brent Smith, Saint Joseph’s University, USA

Chapter 5
The Social Business Guidance Unit: A Case of Service-Learning Within the Ignatian Pedagogy ....... 93
Carlos Ballesteros, Universidad Pontificia Comillas, Spain

Chapter 6
A Mission-Based Approach to Teaching Finance................................................................. 104

Carolin Schellhorn, Saint Joseph’s University, USA
Chapter 7
The Role of a Chief Mission Officer in Maintaining Mission in Schools and Colleges of Business

David J. Burns, Kennesaw State University, USA
Debra K. Mooney, Xavier University, USA
Kathy S. Schwaig, Kennesaw State University, USA

Chapter 8
Multiple Identity Organizations and Performance: A Review of Catholic Institutions of Higher Education in the US and Their Business Departments

Carlos Miguel Baldo, Colorado Mesa University, USA
Kyle S. Hull, Aquinas College, USA
Simón Aristeguieta-Trillos, Clarion University of Pennsylvania, USA

Chapter 9
Strategies and Effectiveness of Experiential and Service Learning Towards Mission Achievement

Francis Wamukota Wambalaba, United States International University Africa, Kenya
Juliana Mulaa Namada, United States International University Africa, Kenya
Paul Katuse, United States International University Africa, Kenya

Chapter 10
Infusing a Practice-Based Mission Throughout a College of Business

Susan R. Rhame, University of Dallas, USA
Dale Fodness, University of Dallas, USA
R. Greg Bell, University of Dallas, USA
Richard J. Miller, University of Dallas, USA
J. Lee Whittington, University of Dallas, USA

Chapter 11
The Employee as a Human Resource: Advice for Business Faculty From CST and Management Theory

Stephen J. Porth, Saint Joseph's University, USA
John J. McCall, Saint Joseph's University, USA

Chapter 12
Using Ignatian Pedagogy in a Business Policy Course: Experience, Reflection, and Action for Strategic Decision Making

Alfredo J. Mauri, Saint Joseph's University, USA
Nicholas S. Rashford, Saint Joseph's University, USA
João Neiva de Figueiredo, Saint Joseph's University, USA

Chapter 13
A Review of Transnational Higher Education

John David Branch, University of Michigan, USA
Chapter 14
Restore Empathy in Modern Business Education ................................................................. 254
   Maria Lai-Ling Lam, AJ-Great Limited, Hong Kong

Chapter 15
International Education, Diversity Exposure, and Cross-Cultural Engagements ............... 273
   Juliana Mulaa Namada, United States International University Africa, Kenya
   Paul Katuse, United States International University Africa, Kenya
   Francis Wamukota Wambalaba, United States International University Africa, Kenya

Chapter 16
Crafting a Consistent Model of Instruction for Teaching Across Modalities ...................... 289
   Cindy B. Rippé, Flagler College, USA
   Suri Weisfeld-Spolter, Nova Southeastern University, USA

Chapter 17
Integration of Mission Into Assessment and Assurance of Learning Programs .................. 306
   Paul Katuse, United States International University Africa, Kenya
   Juliana Namada, United States International University Africa, Kenya
   Francis W. Wambalaba, United States International University Africa, Kenya

Chapter 18
Weaving a Comprehensive Cloth for a Sustainable Business Education: Knitting Ethical Criteria for Sustainability ........................................................................................................ 327
   Sergio A. Castrillon-Orrego, EAFIT University, Colombia

Compilation of References ........................................................................................................ 347

About the Contributors .............................................................................................................. 389

Index ....................................................................................................................................... 396