Contents

1. Introduction: Mortgages and Annuities in Historical Perspective
   Chris Briggs and Jaco Zuijderduijn
   1

2. Mortgages and the English Peasantry c.1250–c.1350
   Chris Briggs
   17

3. Mortgages Raised by Rural English Copyhold Tenants 1605–1735
   Juliet Gayton
   47

4. Mortgages and the Kentish Yeoman in the Seventeenth Century
   Imogen Wedd
   81

5. Why the Equity of Redemption?
   D. P. Waddilove
   117

6. Credit and Land: The Jews of Zaragoza 1383–1400
   Michael Schraer
   149
7 Not Only Land: Mortgage Credit in Central-Northern Italy in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries 181
Giuseppe De Luca and Marcella Lorenzini

8 Rural Credit Markets in Eighteenth-Century France: Contracts, Guarantees and Land 205
Elise M. Dermineur

9 The Use of Perpetual Annuities in Rural Brabant in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries 233
Michael Limberger and Nicolas De Vijlder

10 Proactive Peasants? The Role of Annuities in a Late Medieval Communal Society: The Campine Area, Low Countries 253
Eline Van Onacker

11 The Other Fundamental Problem of Exchange: Mortgages, Defaults and Debtor Protection in Sixteenth-Century Holland 281
Jaco Zuijderduijn

12 Afterword: Mortgages as Mediation Between Kin and Capital 309
Craig Muldrew

Index 327