Evolving Paradigms in Tourism and Hospitality in Developing Countries

A Case Study of India

Edited by

Bindi Varghese
CONTENTS

About the Editor ......................................................... iii
Contributors ............................................................... xv
Preface ........................................................................... xxiii
Introduction ................................................................. xxxiii

PART I: Tourism and Destination Management.................. 1
1. Destination Management and Competitiveness:
   Intervention of Destination Management
   Organizations for Global Competency from an Indian Perspective .................................................. 3
   Bindi Varghese

2. Policing Tourism: Challenges and Opportunities of Tourist Police System in India ...................................... 25
   N. Chaitanya Pradeep

3. Visitor Management and Community Participation in an Ecotourism Destination: The Case of Kanha
   Tiger Reserve, Madhya Pradesh, India .......................... 57
   Anu Chandran

4. Empowerment of Marginalized Communities and Tourism: A Case Study of Theyyam Dance, an Indian
   Perspective ............................................................... 71
   Jacob John and Megha Jacob

5. Influence of Perceived Risks on the Destination
   Choice Process: An Indian Perspective ........................ 87
   Jose K. Antony and Joby Thomas
6. Community-Based Waste Management for Sustainable Tourism in Backwater Regions of Kerala, India ................................................................. 119
Emilda K. Joseph

7. Civil Disturbances and the Tourism Sector: An Impact Study on Kerala Tourism, India .................................................. 145
Sandhya Hariprasad and Bindi Varghese

8. Ecological Tourism Pointers: Analysis on Concepts, Frameworks, and Applications on the Vembanad Lake of Kerala, India .................................................. 161
Suja John

9. Managing Heritage City for Tourism and the Contribution to the Regional Development: A Case of Darasuram in Kumbakonam, Tamil Nadu, India .................................................. 177
K. Selva Kumar

PART II: Operational and Managerial Perspectives in the Service Sector ............................................................................. 191

10. Organizational Culture and Employee Motivation Among the Tourism Professionals in Karnataka, India ..... 193
Tomy K. Kallarakal

11. Employee Engagement in Travel Organizations in India: The Influence of Psychological Climate on Employee Engagement and Its Influence on Intent to Stay .................................................. 213
Ginu George

12. Can Foreign Exchange Volatility Really Influence Tourist Inflow in India? .................................................. 235
K. J. Anson and Avin Thaliath

13. Celebrity Endorsement: Solving the Destination Marketing Puzzle: An Indian Perspective .................. 251
Rosma Mary Jolly
14. Talent Development in the Tourism Industry: A Deliberation on the Open Source Talent in Goa, India ................................. 277
Chery Poornima Smith e Venan Dias and Venan Bonaventure Dias

15. Role of Tourism Education in Meeting the Competency Expectations of the Tourism Industry in India ............................................................... 295
Nagarjuna G.

Gowri Shankar R. and Arjun B. S.

17. Sociocultural Impacts of Namdapha Ecocultural Festival on the Local Residents of Miao, India .................. 333
Pinky Jacob

PART III: Emerging Areas in Tourism .................................................. 347

18. The Indian Hybridity in Its Cultural Expression: Better Understanding One’s Cultural Heritage ......................... 349
Githa U. Badikillaya

19. Challenges of Medical Tourism: Managerial Paradigm in the Indian Framework ................................................. 373
Bindi Varghese

20. Developing a Competitive Wine Tourism Destination: A Case Study of Vineyards in Maharashtra, India ................................. 401
Anupama S. Kotur (Kaddi)

21. Agritourism in India: Strategies for Growth .................... 417
Suraj Nair

22. Commercialization of Art Forms: A Kerala Tourism Perspective, India ............................................................ 435
Anu Ajayagosh
   Nikhil Raj

   Shamima Akhtar

25. Social Media in Tourism: Challenges and Corrective Measures ................................................................. 483
   Sneha N. and B. George

Index ......................................................................................................................................................... 495