Martin Caraher • Sinéad Furey

The Economics of Emergency Food Aid Provision

A Financial, Social and Cultural Perspective
CONTENTS

1 The Growing Problems of Food Poverty and Insecurity 1
   Introduction 2
   What Constitutes Food Poverty? 5
   How Food Banks Work and Why We See the Numbers Increasing 9
   Food Banks and Other Delivery Mechanisms of Charitable Food 10
   Other Models of Food Provision 15
   So What Is the Link Between the Retreating State and Food Banks? 17
   Conclusions 18
   References 20

2 Title Growth of Food Banks in the UK (and Europe): Leftover Food for Leftover People 25
   Introduction: Growth and Expansion of Food Banks and Welfare Reform 26
   A New Concept of Hunger and Want 29
   Food Bank Numbers Increase 31
   Working Models 31
   Leftover Food for Leftover People: A New Social Divide! 34
   The ‘Right to Food’ 36
   Conclusions 41
   References 44
3 The Cultural and Economic Dimensions of Food Poverty

- Introduction to the Cost Analysis of Nutritionally Adequate Diets Compared to Food Bank Parcels
- Shopping Basket Research
- Low Incomes and Food Vulnerability
- Consensual Food Baskets
- The Social Cost of a Food Bank Food Parcel
- Conclusion: The Social Cost of Charity Food Provision

4 Food Banks and Their Contribution/Detraction from Welfare Budgets

- Introduction: Reactions and Actions
- Leftover Food for Leftover People
- Welfare and Work Changes and the Path to Food Charity
  - The Welfare Budget
  - Understanding Welfare Systems
- The Broader Picture of Welfare Provision in the UK: Implications for Foodbanking
- Conclusion: The Proportion of Spend on Welfare Benefits Vis à Vis Food

5 Conclusions So What Is the Future?

- Introduction
- Food Rights and Protest?
  - Riot Versus Right
- Hunger is Solvable if Only We Have the Political Will
- So What is to Be Done?
- Conclusions: A New Agenda for a Rights-Based Approach to Food Equality in the UK

Index