THE MALAYSIAN ESTATES STAFF PROVIDENT FUND
1947-2017

MALAYSIA'S OLDEST PROVIDENT FUND

With an Economic, Social and Political Perspective

Jeyaraj C. Rajaraao

SIRD
Strategic Information and Research Development Centre
Petaling Jaya, Malaysia
Contents

Foreword xiii
Preface xvii
Acknowledgements xxv
Abbreviations and Acronyms xxviii

Introduction 1

1 ANCIENT GLOBAL EXPLOITATION OF LABOUR AND LATTER-DAY CHANGES 5
   Peep into Past Labour Exploitation
   The Institution of Slavery
   Abolition of Slavery
   Child Labour Abuse
   Post-Industrialisation Abuse of Child Labour
   Awakening Interest in Labour as Human Capital
   Change Effect and Impact on Employers and Corporations
   Need to Understand Malaysia's Development and Immigrants' Contributions

2 IMMIGRANT LABOUR, ECONOMIC GROWTH AND BRITISH INTERVENTION IN MALAYA: A HISTORICAL ANALYSIS 21
   Labour Exploitation with Emergence of Three Ethnic Groups
   Immigrants from Indonesia and Early Indian Influence
   The Orang Asli
   Indonesians, Indians and Islam
   Paramesvara and Free Flow of Indonesian Immigrants
   Malacca Prospers and Indonesians and Islam take over Malaya
Contrary View to Introduction and Spread of Islam in Malaya
Rivalries and Chaos in the States
Inflow of Chinese: Partisan Roles and Acquisition of Wealth
Indian Immigrants and their Vicissitudes
Need for Unity through Diversity
Three Economic Phases
The Peasant Economy: The Feudal Era
British Intervention and the Commercial Period
Post-Independent Phase: Mixed Economy and VISION 2020
The Plight of Estate Workers: Time for Improvements

3 BACKGROUND TO THE FORMATION OF THE MALAYSIAN ESTATES STAFF PROVIDENT FUND

The Significance of the Rubber Plantation Sector
Attracting Investors to Grow Rubber
Varied Agricultural Plantation Sector, Oil Palm a New Entrant
Oil Palm Planters’ Associations Increase
The Rubber Growers’ Association
Control over Malayan Plantations
Activities in London and Agitation in Malaya
Rubber Growers’ Association’s Move to Kuala Lumpur
Sinews and Muscles of Malayan Planters
Restriction Schemes and Consequences
Plantation Agencies and Estate Owners
Small Farmers and Effects of Rubber Restriction Schemes
Labour Employment and Estate Management
Worker Protests and the Rise of Labour Organisations
Organised Labour Strikes and their Suppression
The Establishment of the Malaysian Estates Staff Provident Fund in 1947

4 MALAYSIAN ESTATES STAFF PROVIDENT FUND: ORIGIN, OBJECTIVES AND ORGANISATION

Social Protection and Pension Schemes: Prelude to MESPF
Workers’ Unions Steer for Social Security Measures
All Malayan Estates Staff Union and Consolidation of Workers
Skirmishes between Estate Employers and Employees
Seeds Sown for the MESPF
The Brawls between Palmer and Menon
MESPF Sown Seeds Sprout
MESPF: First Government-Approved Provident Fund
Core Objectives of the MESPF
Appointments to the MESPF Board
Major Functions of the Board
Appointment of Secretaries and Secretarial Duties
Employee Membership of MESPF
Areas Defined and Eligibility of Membership
Earliest Conditions for Withdrawals from the MESPF and the EPF
Cessation of Membership
Employers' and Employees' Contribution to MESPF
Benefits Payable
Continuing Assessment

5 THE EARLY YEARS: ADJUSTMENTS AND CONSOLIDATION 129

Malaysian Estates Staff Provident Fund Board Faces Realities
Monthly Board Meetings, Minutes and Annual Reports
Chairman's Management of Meetings and Public Cautions to Government
Sydney Bacon Palmer, OBE, CBE: First Chairman of MESPF (1947–1949)
Palmer's Candid Critique of the Colonial Government
Palmer at Work with the MESPF
Increasing Turmoil in Estates
The MESPF Plods on under Palmer
Palmer Resigns and Hadley Humphrey Facer Succeeds
E. D. Shearn and his Law Firm as Legal Advisor to MESPF
The Conservatism of Facer
Facer Requests Rubber Tax Relief
Facer and the Royal Lake Club Fiasco
Facer's Early Contributions as Acting Chairman of MESPF
Increase in Contribution Rates, Extending Membership Age and Withdrawals
Withdrawal of Savings
Release of a Deceased Member's Credit
Summary of the First Five Years' Growth
6 IMPERATIVES AS ALTERNATIVES: NEW ISSUES AFFECTING ADVANCEMENT

Plantation Industry Comes to Terms with Changing Political Conditions
Post-War Political Scenario and Impact
Malayan Union Plan of 1946 and Its Implications
Tunku Abdul Rahman, First Prime Minister of Malaya
Natural Rubber as an Indispensable Commodity
Planters' Tight Rope to Progress
Owners and Managers of Estates and the MESPF Adjusting to Changes
Facer Returns as Chairman and Encounters the Employees' Provident Fund
Dissatisfaction with MESPF Dividend Payments
Trustee Corray's Contributions and Demise
V.D. Nair Appointed Trustee
Acting Chairman, T.E. Upton: Pragmatism at Board Meetings
MESPF Acts with Kindness
Low Dividend Payments Crop Up Again
Problems with Proposed Increased Contributions
Senior Asian Staff Predicament in MESPF
Facer Retires as Chairman
Progress under the Chairmanship of Carey, Bird and J.M. McDonald
Malayan EPF and Singapore CPF
The Malaysian Employees' Provident Fund
Dividends Payable by EPF
Withdrawals from the EPF
Accounts of EPF Members
MESPF Withdrawals Compared to EPF
Singapore CPF and Impact on the MESPF
Malayan Planters Provident Fund
Ex-Officio Trusteeship for AMESU President
Housing Loans for Members
Board Changes and Stock Taking at End of 1961

7 TRANSFORMATION PROCESS: PROGRESS THROUGH PERSEVERANCE

MESPF Moves On
Employees' Representatives Challenging Employers
European Planters React Out of Fear
The NEP and Foreign Rubber Planters
Role of PERNAS and PNB
Reaction of Plantation Agency Houses
Changes Influencing the MESPF
Social Security Schemes in Malaysia
Different Private and Public Provident Funds
Proposal for Malaysians to be MESPF Chairmen
Increased Withdrawals and Adjustment to Changing Needs
Urgent Strategies to Face New Situations
Effect of Credit Withdrawals
Malaysia's New Assertive Role and Use of Provident Funds
Assisting Nominees of Deceased Members and Acquiring Liquidity
Income Tax Exemption for MESPF
MESPF Suffers Loss from UK Investments

8 REASSESSING REALITIES: OVERCOMING OBSTACLES

Chairman V.D. Nair Facing and Responding to Realities
V. D. Nair, First Malayan Manager of Prang Besar Estate
Government Acquires Prang Besar Estate
V.D. Nair Writes a Brief History of Prang Besar Estate
V.D. Nair Appointed as Chairman of the MESPF
Attributes of V.D. Nair
Assessing and Assuring Best Retirement Payments
Devaluation of the Sterling Pound: A Brief Perspective
Devaluation and Impact on the MESPF
Reassessing Investment Strategies
MESPF's Shortsighted Investments
Investments a Speculative Activity
Portfolio Managers
Other Reforms and Objectives
More Radical Decisions Taken
Aim to Set up MESPF's own Office
Reasons for Major Amendments

9 TRANSITION IN COMPLEX TIMES: CHALLENGES AND CHANGES

Competition from the EPF and Concerns for Winding up the MESPF
Key Amendments to MESPF Investment Rules and Implications for Members
Financial Reverberations and Concerns
Overview of the Malaysian Employees' Provident Fund
EPF's Provisions and Facilities
EPF's Controversial Investment Policy
Temporary Concessions for EPF Contributors
EPF Dividend Payment Rates
EPF Accounts and Withdrawal Conditions
EPF's Impact on MESPF
Status Change of the MESPF: Statutory to Approved Fund
Declining Status of the MESPF and the 1997 Financial Crisis
Adham Abdullah Steers the MESPF as its Chairman
MESPF Membership Declines and Secretariat Closes Down

10 RECOVERY AND PERSISTENT ISSUES

Adham's Team on Appointment as Chairman in 1997
Adham's First Team Continues to October 2015 and Beyond
Persistent Problems Monitored
Increasing Export Value of Rubber Products but Decreasing Crop Cultivation
Significance of Oil Palm and Export Value
Oil Palm Wood: New Green Material
Plantations' Basic Structure
Financial Management and Investment Strategies: Protecting and Prospering Reserves
Datuk Boon Weng Siew and Contributions
Welfare of Employees in the Agricultural Sector
Investment Approaches from the Early Years
Establishment of Kuala Lumpur Stock Exchange
Sustainable Long Term Investment Management
Role of MESPF Board in Ensuring Sound Investment
Datuk Heng Ji Keng
Michael Joseph Monteiro
Margaret Pelly
MESPF Board's Continued Trimming Process
Principles of Investment Strategy
11 THE CALL FOR WINDING UP: AMBIVALENCE, APPEASEMENT OR ABEYANCE?

Rule Authorising Winding up the MESPF
Invidious Position of the Board and the Contributing Members
First Thoughts of Winding Up
More Malaysian Trustees Appointed
K.B. Lee: Longest Serving MESPF Trustee
Financial Recovery but Warnings of Winding Up
Ambivalence in the Formal Discussions to Wind Up
Fresh Perspective of Winding Up and Appeasement of Differences
Employers' Meeting Called in 1985 to Wind Up the Fund
Resolution to Wind Up Defeated at Adjourned Meeting in 1986
Aftermath and Future Policy for the MESPF
Change of Trustees in the MESPF Board
New Decade Trustees: Ong Chong Hye, Zahar Mohd. Shariff and Daniel Ebinesan
The Winding Up Issue as a Nemesis
Confronting the MESPF Nemesis or Opting for Abeyance?
Chairman Nair's Last Review and the MESPF's Nemesis
Adham Abdullah Elected Chairman of the MESPF

12 THE UNENDING SAGA OF WINDING UP: RESTRUCTURING, RECOVERING OR REVIVAL?

Oldest Provident Fund to Wind Up
Circumstances Leading to Deferment of Winding Up Meeting
The Financial Crisis of 1997
Continued Problems Affecting Winding up MESPF
New Trustees Appointed
Adham and Trustees Handle the Restructuring and Revival Strategies
Performance of Investment Managers and Restructuring to Recover Losses
Winding Up the Fund: Timing and Nature
Strict Supervision of Portfolio Managers
Restructuring Brings Back the Issue of Winding Up and Need for Frugality
Secretariat Closed: All Functions Outsourced to M/s Monteiro & Heng
Staff of MESPF Retrenched and Retired
Revival Idea Prompts the Board to Reflect on Future of the MESPF
Unexpected Government's Desire to Revive Private Pension Funds
Board Decides to Continue Management of the MESPF
Essence of Two Major Reports for Revival of the MESPF
Demise of Trustee S. Rajasegaram
Jey Kumar Raman Appointed as MESPF Trustee
Whither the MESPF?